(Richardson Peagins Will)

In the name of God Amen, I Richardson Peagins senior being of perfect and sound mind and memory do make + ordain

this & no other to be my last will and testament that is first of all, I recommend my soul to God who give it and my body to the earth from whence it came to be buried in a decent manner at the discretion of my executors hereafter named and touching such worldly goods and property where with it has pleased god to bless me in this life, I give and dispose of in the manner following to wit, in the first place I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Martha Feagin three negroes Sidney, Moses and Tom also all my household furniture and all my live stock of every kind for her use during her natural life and to be disposed of as she sees fit at her decease among her children. I also give to the aforesaid Martha Feagin my whole landed possession during her life except it is agreed on between her and the legatees and executors to sell either at public or private sale, then it is my wish that the proceeds of such sale should be equally divided among the legatees. I also give to my son Henry Feagin the young bay mare. I also ordain & appoint Bryant Burroughs Cornelias Bowd, Thomas Feagin and Samuel Feagin executors to this my last will and testament.
