John Hollady's Will.

Georgia Jones County.

Know all men by these present that I John Hollady Senior being Feeble in body but sound in mind and memory and knowing the certainty of Death and the uncertainty of life I do hereby make this my last will and testament, That is as soon as convenient after my Death, I wish to be buried in a Christian like manner and after paying all my just debts, I wish my property to be divided in the following manner, I wish my wife to have Matilda to dispose of her in any way that may seem right to her at her death, also to have every thing so long as she lives and then to be divided in the following manner that is, The negro woman Daphney and her Children now in the possession of Lethia Hollady to remain until her youngest Child becomes of age then to be equally divided between them, I wish my son James's Children to have all that tract or parcel of land lying on the other side of my spring branch commencing at Mrs. Gilman's line and extending
