

Copy of the Will of A. B. Duncan, Esq.

Georgia, In the name of God, Amen, Lee County, I, Alexander B. Duncan, of said State and County aforesaid, knowing that I must shortly depart from this World, deem it right & proper, both as respects myself and Family, that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind Providence has blessed me, & therefore make this my Last Will & Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all others heretofore made by me. —

Item 1st = I desire and direct, my body to be buried in a decent and Christianlike manner, suitable to my Circumstances and Condition, my Soul I trust should return to rest, to God, who gave it, as I hope for Eternal Salvation through the blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, whose Religion I have professed and as I humbly trust in

Item 2nd = I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid without delay, by my Executors hereinafter named, as I am unwilling my Creditors should be delayed of their rights, especially as there is no necessity for delay. —

Item 3rd = I give and devise to my beloved wife Ellen A., with whom I have lived in the strictest quiet and love and equal I have with my Children by the said Ellen A. —

Item 4th = I appoint my trust worthy friend Seth K. Taylor, Guardian of the person and property of my Children by the said Ellen A. —

Item 5th = I constitute and appoint my beloved wife Ellen A. Executrix, and my worthy friend Seth K. Taylor, Executor to this my Last Will and Testament, this October Thirtieth (30th) Eighteen Hundred and Fifty One (1851) (Signed) A. B. Duncan, Esq.

Signed, Sealed, declared and published by Alexander B. Duncan, as his Last Will and Testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who submitted the same to our

{ We, Henry H. Herrington, Isaac Welch, & Thomas { S. Tuggle, was present on the Thirtieth of October Eighteen Hundred and fifty one, at the Residence of Alexander B. Duncan, before his death, and during his last illness, of which he died on the night of the fifteenth, at which time, viz: on the thirtieth in perfect possession of his mental faculties, he called up us to take notice of what he was about to say. He now wishes is to understand that his Will and desire was, that from the love and affection he bore for his mother, Mary Duncan, he wishes her to have One Thousand Dollars, out of his Estate: not-with-standing his written will, and also that my wife Ellen A. Duncan, shall be an equal sharer with my children, of all my Estate, by putting certain property she holds under a deed into heretofore: On the night of the fifteenth, after making the above request he breathed his last. - (signed by,)
