

Will of James Laramore, Deceased

Georgia. } I do the name of God, Amen. - Lee County. } I, James Laramore, of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but of advanced age, do make this my last Will and Testament hereby, revoking all other Wills, then before made by me, and particularly by revoking hereby my Will, signed, sealed, declared, and published by me on the nineteenth day of March, in the year Eighteen Hundred and fifty-seven, in presence of Thomas F.
 Foster, G. M. Stokes, Samuel L. Wyche and Fred
 W. Hesk as Witnesses. -

Item First. - I desire and direct that my body be buried in a decent and Christianlike manner suitable to my condition and circumstances in life. -

Item Second. - I desire and direct that all my just debts and funeral Expenses be paid without delay by my Executor herein after named. -

Item Third. - It is my Will and desire as soon as the same can be done after my death, that my entire Estate, left after the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses shall be divided into as many shares or parts as there shall be persons or sets of persons entitled to shares thereof, under and by virtue of the bequest herein after to be made, and then into equal parts to be disposed of as follows: -

Item Fourth. I do give and bequeath to my, beloved Son Alexander Laramore, in the event my, beloved wife Mary E. Laramore, shall survive me, one equal share of my entire estate so divided, in trust for the sole and separate use, benefit and advantage of my beloved wife Mary E. for and during her natural life for her support and maintenance, and for maintenance and Education of such Child or Children as I may have by her, and which share of my Estate shall be free from the control, and free from the debts, liabilities and liabilities of any future husband she may have, and also the increase and profits thereof, and after her death to my Children and

Lee County Wills

1854-1891

www.georgiapioneers.com

James Laramore
 March

Will of James Laramore, Deceased, Continued

Grand-children, and the issue of such of my Grand-children as may be dead, to be divided among them, as follows: My Children then living shall each have a share, the child or children of each of my deceased children to have a share the same as the parent of such child or children would have taken if living; and in case any of these my Grand-children shall then be dead, the issue of such shall stand in their stead & receive what the parent would have received if living, under the same limitations and restrictions as the shares of my Estate directly bequeathed to them, respectively, in this Will. The foregoing bequest to my beloved wife Mary E. is in lieu of dower and all other rights which she may have in and to my Estate, or any part thereof, by the Laws of this State, in case she survives me, and shall be void unless it shall be so accepted, -

Lee County Wills

1854-1891

www.georgiapioneers.com

Item Fifth: I do give and bequeath to my beloved Son John D. Laramore (or in case I survive him, to such of his children as may be living at the time of my death, and the issue of such as may be dead, share and share alike, such issue of his deceased children, taking the share the parent would have taken if living) one share of my entire Estate divided as directed in Item Third. -

Item Sixth: I do give and bequeath to my beloved Son Alexander Laramore (or in case I survive him, to such of his children as may be living at the time of my death, and the issue of such as may then be dead, share and share alike, such issue of his deceased children taking the share the parent would have taken if living) one share of my entire Estate divided as directed in Item Third. -

Item Seventh: I give and bequeath to my beloved Grand-children, Susan, James, Ruben, Luquicia, James, and John, children of my beloved Son James Laramore deceased, or such of them as may be living at the time of my death, and the issue of such of them

This is James Laramore's will

Will of James Tammore, deceased, continued.

As may be dead, one share of my Estate, divided as directed in Item Third, to be equally divided between them share and share alike, the issue of such of them as may be dead leaving issue, taking the share the parent would have taken if living, the parts or shares to which my above mentioned Grand Daughters may receive from my Estate shall be their sole and separate property, free from the debts, contracts, and liabilities of any future husband they may have respectively -

Item Eighth: I do give and bequeath to my beloved Son Peter W. Tammore, (or in case I survive him, to such of his children as may be living at the time of my death, and the issue of such of his children as may then be dead, share and share alike, such issue taking the share the parent would have taken if living, one share of my entire Estate, as directed in Item Third,

Lee County Wills
1854-1891

Item Ninth: I do give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Jane Staley, in case she survives me, one share of my entire Estate, for and during her natural life, for her sole and separate use, benefit and advantage, to be free from the debts, contracts and liabilities, and free from the control of her present or any future husband, and after her death, to such child or children, and the issue of her deceased child or children, as she may have living at the time of her death, to be equally divided between them share and share alike, the issue of deceased child or children taking respectively, the share the parent of such child or children would have taken if living, And in case I survive my beloved daughter Jane, then I give and bequeath this share of my Estate to such of her children as may be living at the time of my death, and the issue then living of such of her children as may be dead, to be divided equally, between them share and share alike.

This of James Tammore
March

Will of James Garrison, continued,

the issue of deceased children taking the share the parent would have taken if living; and in the event of the death of any of said children without issue then living the share of my Estate to which such children may be entitled shall go to the other children and issue of deceased children of said Jane and be equally divided, share and share alike between them their standing, in the place of the deceased parents. The parts or shares of my Estate which may go to Daughters of my beloved daughter Jane under this Will, shall be their sole and separate property, and be free from the contracts, debts and liabilities of their husbands respectively. —

11th > I then testify: I do give and bequeath to my beloved Son George R. Garrison, (or in case I survive him, to such of his children as may be living at the time of my death, and the issue of such of his children as may then be living) share and share alike, the issue of such of his deceased children taking the share the parent would have taken if living) one share of my entire Estate divided as directed in the third thereof. I then testify: I do give and bequeath to my beloved Grand-daughter Martha A. Garrison, (or in case I survive her, one share of my entire Estate divided as directed in the third thereof, for her sole and separate use and benefit, and to be forever free from the debts, contracts, and liabilities and control of any future husband she may have, and after her death to such child or children as she may have living at the time of her death, to be equally divided between share and share alike, the issue of deceased child or children standing for and in the place of the deceased parent, and in the event of the death of my said Grand-daughter Martha A. leaving no child or children then this share of my Estate intended for during her natural life to go to the same person. I

Lee County Wills
1854-1891
www.georgiapioneers.com

Geo. J. Garrison
 1854-1891

Will of James Tammore, dec'd, continued.

divided in the same manner, and be taken under the same limitations and restrictions as stated in Stone's South Survey for the disposition of a share of my Estate after the determination of the life Estate therein of my beloved wife Mary E. In the event I survive my beloved Grand-Daughter Martha A. and she shall have a child or children living at the time of my death, then such child or children shall have the share of my Estate the Mother would have taken if living to be equally divided between them, share and share alike, and upon the death of such child or children without issue, shall be disposed of as in case of the death of said Martha A. leaving no child or children, as above directed. In case my Grand-Daughter Martha A. shall die before I do, and shall leave no child or children living at my death, then this bequest is void and the share shall be no part of my will. —

Lee County Wills

1854-1891

www.georgiapioneers.com

Then I bequeath to each Lawfully begotten child, not now in being that I may have living at the time of my death, or may have born within a reasonable time thereafter, one equal share of my entire Estate with my children now living, and the issue of such as are dead, for and during the natural life of each of such children, and after the death of each of such child or children, to such child or children as they may have living at the time of the death of each, share and share alike; the issue of such deceased grand-child to stand for and in place of the deceased parents; and in the event of the death of such child or children of mine without issue living at the time of such death, then the share hereby bequeathed to such child shall go to the same persons, be divided in the same manner, and be taken under the same

Will of James Tammore

Will of James Garrison, continued.

restrictions and limitations as stated in the South Hill Wille. for the disposition of a share of my Estate after the determination of the life Estate of my beloved Wife Mary E. Garrison. This Item of my Will is to provide only for such Children now as I may have born after the execution hereof and if any of Children are girls then the life Estate hereby bequeathed to such Girl child shall be for the sole and separate use and benefit of such Girl child and be forever free from the debts, contracts, and liabilities of any future husband such child may have - This I direct, - I desire my beloved son John C. Garrison to be Guardian of all the minor children that I may have living at the time of my death, or may have born within a reasonable time thereafter, and do hereby constitute and appoint him as such Guardian, and Lee County Wills 1854-1891 www.georgiapioneers.com do hereby ratify and approve of his actions and things as such Guardian under the laws of this State, and in the event of his death during the minority of any of such children then I request some one of my sons then living shall take Letters of Guardianship for such minor children, and desire that such appointments shall be made - Item Fourteenth: It is the intention of this my Will to divide all my Estate between the issue of my wife, each of my living children, and the issue of each of my children that are now dead or that may be dead at the time of my death, that the issue of my children and Grand-children that are now dead, or that may be dead when any division of property under this Will shall be made, shall stand for and in the place of the persons deceased of such children or issue, and shall receive the part or share the parent would have in each instance received if living, and that the property so received shall be taken under the Rules of intestacy.

13th -

James Garrison, c.
w. h.

John Garrison

Will of James Paramore. (Continued).

specified in the several Bequests of Shewey my Estate directly to each of them, -

Item Fifth &c - It is my wish and desire that any wife I may have living at the time of my death other than my beloved wife Mary E. shall have and be entitled to the benefit of the Fourth Item of this my Will, under the above limitations and restrictions thereof, as fully as if her name were therein written in the place of, and in lieu of the name of my beloved wife Mary E. -

Item Six &c - I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved Son John G. Paramore, Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, and in case I survive him, or he dies before the full execution of his duties as Executor hereof, then I appoint my beloved Son George R. Paramore to be my Executor of this Will. This the 22nd day of April 1861.

Lee County Wills
1854-1891
www.georgiapioneers.com

James Paramore, Seal

James Paramore
1861

Signed, Sealed, Declared and published by James Paramore, as his Last Will and Testament, (in the foregoing Seven pages upon each of which he has in our presence subscribed his name) in the presence of us, the subscribers, who subscribe our names hereto as witnesses in the presence of said Testator at his special instance and request and in the presence of each other, this the 22nd day of April 1861. -

William H. Heath,
G. M. Stotter,
Fred H. Heath

Georgia, 3 The Last Will and Testament of James Paramore, 3 late of said County deceased, bearing this day 3 been produced and opened before me, and John 3 G. Paramore, the Executor thereon vowed presenting said Will for Probate in vacation by, Gilbert M.
Stotter and Fred H. Heath two of the witnesses to said Will, which witnesses being sworn say, that they saw James Paramore the Testator sign,

Will of James Gammon. Continued.

Seal, declare and publish the paper produced as aforesaid, as the last Will and Testament of said decedent, and that he was of sound mind and memory, that they and William Gifford subscribed said Will as witnesses, at the special request of said Testator in his presence, and in the presence of each other, in and to and subscribed this March 26th 1866 before me, Gilbert M. Stotes, Fred W. Hark,

E. B. Watson, Ordinary

Recorded in Office April 16th 1866, E. B. Watson, Ordinary Superscriptive Will of J. P. Cook, Decedent, Georgia, Lee County, 3rd Me. Ramonius Cook, William J. Griffin and 3rd Ramonius Sued, now present at the Residence of J. P. Cook, in said County, on the first day of March 1866, a few days previous to his death, and in conversation had between said J. P. Cook, with his Brother B. F. Cook and his wife. The said Cook spoke of approaching his death and in view of the same he stated in our presence as witnesses the following in substance, i.e.

- 1st That his stay on Earth was short,
- 2nd, That after his death he desired that all his just debts should be paid as soon as practicable,
- 3rd. That after the payment of his debts he desired that the whole of the balance of his property should be divided between his wife and children share and share alike,
- 4th. That he desired that his Brother Benjamin S. Cook should have charge of his Business and execute his will. In witness whereof we do hereby set our hands and Seals this 24th day of March 1866,

W. J. Griffin, 25
 B. F. Cook, 25
 Ramonius Sued, 25

Lee County Wills 1854-1891 www.georgiapioneers.com