State of Georgia

Liberty County } Know all men by these presents, that we, Benjamin W. Allen & Noah Daniel, are held and firmly bound unto the Honorable the Justices of the Superior Court of Liberty County in the State of Georgia in the sum of two thousand dollars, to be paid to the said Justices, being Judges of the Court of Ordinance, their successors in office, or assigns: for which payment, well and truly to be made and done, we bind ourselves, jointly and severally, and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated at Hinesville the second day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty nine.

The Condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bounden Benjamin W. Allen, administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of Matthew Dwyer, late of said County deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which ^{have} or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of the said Benjamin W. Allen, or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him, and the same, so made, do exhibit into the Court of Ordinary when he shall be therunto required; and such goods, chattels and credits do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of his actings and doings therein, when required by the Superior Court, or Court of Ordinary for the County; and all the rest of the goods, chattels and credits which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration, the same being first allowed by the said Court, shall deliver and pay to such persons, respectively, as are entitled to the same by law: And if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the said deceased, and the same be proved before the Court, and the executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and then ^{the} Benjamin W. Allen do in such case, if required, render and deliver up the said letters of administration; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.
