State of Georgia, In the name of God Amen, I Charles Liberty county Walker planter in the county and State aforesaid being very sick & weak of body but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God, therefore calling to mind the mortality of my body, knowing that it is appointed unto all men once to die do make ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say principally and first of all I give & recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God, that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth, to be buried in decent Christian burial, at the discretion of my executors and executor herein after named, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the almighty power of God, And as touching such worldly estate Wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life I give devise and dispose of the same in the following manner & form. Item I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, all my estate both real & personal whosoever to be found (that is to say) I give and bequeath what property both real and personal I got by my said wife Elisha Green Walker at the time of my marriage to her & her heirs forever. The residue of my estate both real & personal I give and bequeath also unto my beloved wife during her natural life, that is to say should she die, without leaving husband or issue it is then my will and desire that the said residue of my estate (not taking into view) what I got by marriage of my said wife shall go to my brothers and sisters (to wit) William and David Walker, Elisha beth Walker, Sarah Fowler and Judith Walker, share and share alike, except Judith Walker who is to have double of either of the others. And it is my particular wish and desire, that Simmons Fowler the husband of my sister Sarah shall never enjoy any part of the above property in his own right, but that it shall be placed in the hands of my brother in law George Walker as trustee to my said sister Sarah Fowler And it is my will and desire
