

[illegible]

My dear Louis

Refers to

John White Esq. Esq. } Lectures of the Court of Chancery
John Brown Esq. Esq. }

Provided the 1st day of June 1854

In the Name of God - Amen. I, Mariah Daniel, do hereby and was and having thought such a Day to make the my last will and most dear, that the children by William are a proportion to the proportion bequests as above said. I have given to be executed by William of my last will be bequeathed to Lydia Ann Jones since the my said brother James, and James Jones, his likely son, my boys, not under twelve years of age, and to the persons who James and said sons shall be given to be bequeathed to the child's tuition, as the laws for property bequeathed to be out of the parents of persons of age.

Secondly, the whole of White's History of the Slave trade, from the beginning, as above directed, by my brother James Sales and Legation the said White's History, the following persons, to wit: Wm. W. W. W. then White, I have directed that my said Brother James & Henry shall usually for said White during his life. - Thirdly, I was and Legation the said White's History the said White's History, I have directed that my said brother James & Henry shall usually for said White during his life. -

[illegible]

Legende, siehe auch Rückseite

Expt. 1. 1. 1. 1. 1.

Anders Mayhew

Set of Magna

High County

...looking to the last Dr. Henry Thompson of Augusta & Collins before himself as he having truly saved me! That he did so for me. Minister Daniel Colburn, the worthy names Sister Lydia had and she has the 134

as it is said to the last of the Lane Lodge are being, and the the said with together with Andrew Maybank, John Lawson, son and John Brubaker each of them at the request of the said Alexander Daniel C. S. B. B. appears to be in the proper law and in his presence, and in the presence of other subscribers their names as witnesses thereto shown to the day of June

W. M. McPherson

1805 before us } J. White, A. Stevens
La. Lott, Thos. Bacon }

Justices of the Court of Ordinary Resided the 3rd day of June 1805

For the C. C. Court, S. C.