G. Baker Clerk

Georgia
Liberty County } In the name of God. Amen. I Peter Winn, of the State and County aforesaid, planter, being of sound mind and memory, calling to mind the uncertainty of life. Do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, in manner and form following: Be it known and understood, that the negro property, or slaves, with their issue, which I have loaned to my children, John Winn, Anna Fleming, Mary Bacon, Peter Farley Winn, Eliza S. Stevens, are to be considered as belonging to my personal estate, and that each heir to pay equal proportion of my debts and legacies, and all expenses that may arise, which will hereafter follow by my will. My will is, that a head & foot stone be affixed to my former wife's grave, and to the graves of my deceased children, Sarah Winn, Abel Winn, and the Revd Thomas S. Winn, with such inscription as they see necessary, and the expense to be paid equally by my heirs, by order of my executors, and all subscriptions of mine, unpaid at my decease, to be paid equally by my heirs. My real and personal estate to be divided in manner following: I give to my beloved wife the wench called Black Betty, and the fellow Robt, one horse and chair, sag, gig, and the tract of land on Newport, on the Great Swamp, which was bought by her former husband, Mr Charles Carter from Mr. Dunham, containing one hundred acres more or less, in lieu of her dower, tenor and her heirs forever.

I give to my ^{son} John Winn, my daughter Anna Fleming, my daughter Mary Bacon, and my son Peter Farley Winn, all that tract or tracts of land in Effingham County, formerly St. Matthews Parish, containing two hundred and fifty acres, surveyed by Mr. Glegg, executor of Benj. Farley Senr. and fifty acres adjoining the above, purchased by Mr. Glegg from one Johnson, for Benj. & Mary Farley. The above tracts are on the Big Bay. Also the half of a five hundred acre tract, on Satilla River, formerly St. David's Parish, now County, of Camden, granted to Joseph Glegg and Mrs. Gibbons in trust for Benj. and Mary Farley, adjoining lands of the Estate of the Revd. Zuberbille. Also one lot, No 7019 in Savanah St. Paul's Yamacraw, which was bought by old Mr. Farley from the Revd. Mr. Tully. I give the said lands, and lots of lands, to them and their heirs forever.

My will is, that my widow shall have the use of my dwelling house, and as much land as will be necessary to work her hands upon, and household furniture during my widow.

The remainder of my property, both real and personal (including those negroes, with their issue, which I have loaned to my children, as above mentioned) shall be equally divided between my beloved wife, & children, John Winn, Anna Fleming, Mary Bacon, Peter Farley
