Georgia Personally appeared before me Thomas Stevens, Liberty County, one of the Justices of the Inferiour Court for said County Josiah Bacon, esquire who being duly sworn saith that on the day within Instant to Thomas Goulding of said County (now deceased) being taken ill but perfectly in his senses, & in view of his Reason, told this Defendant that he (the Deceased), would die, and said that it was his desire that his Brother Salmer Goulding's Note of hand which he had in possession should be given up to him and that all the rest of his property he gave to his sister Sarah Goulding
