

one year, that one half of my personal property, be equally divided amongst the children of my dear wife, Elizabeth Hastings, that she had by her first husband, to them and to their heirs forever. And that the remaining one half shall be equally divided amongst my said three sisters share and share alike. And I do hereby constitute make and create, my loving sisters above named, Executors of this my last will and Testament. Hereby I utterly disallow, revoke and annul, all and every other former Testaments, wills, Legacies, Bequests, Executors and Executrix, by me in any way before named willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other, to be my last will and Testament.
In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and seal, this twentieth day of January, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty three, and in the seventh Year of American Independence.

Arch. Hastings Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the said Archibald Hastings, as his last will and Testament in the presence of us, who in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names

Mary Carr
As. Alexander } proved & Recorded this 19th January 1791
As. Alexander D. p.