In the name of God Amen. I James Stacy, of the County & State aforesaid, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, & being of sound & perfect mind & memory, do make & publish this my last will & testament in manner & form following, viz. I hereby give & bequeath unto my beloved daughter, Susan Lovens, all of that tract or parcel of lands, on which I now reside, consisting of 130 acres, more or less, to hold to her the said Susan Lovens, her heirs & assigns forever. It is also my will, that my beloved wife Mary Broom shall have the privilege of living on & cultivating the above named tract of land, so long as she shall remain my widow. - I do hereby also give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary Broom, & my aforesaid daughter Susan Lovens, all other lands which I may have, together with all slaves, which I now have, or may have at the time of my demise, to be equally divided between them. To hold to them the aforesaid Mary Broom & Susan Lovens, their heirs & assigns forever. And lastly, all the rest, residue & remainder of my personal estate, goods & chattels, not mentioned above, I hereby give unto my beloved wife aforesaid, whom I do hereby appoint executrix, & my trusty friends, Joseph McGowan & John W. Stacy, executors, of this my last will & testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

In testimony whereof I the aforesaid James Stacy have hereunto set my hand & seal this 27 day of January in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred & twenty seven.
Signed, sealed, published & declared by the above named James Stacy to be his last will & testament in presence of us, who have subscribed our names as witnesses in presence of the testator.
