In the name of God Amen I Joseph Austin of the County and State aforesaid planter being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, do make this my last will and testament.

Item 1st I will that my body be decently buried at the discretion of my executors hereafter named.

2^d I will that all my just debts be paid.

3^d It is my will and desire that the following negroes named Harry and Phyllis bought at Sheriff's sales from John Stewart, Sheriff of Liberty County, and recorded in the Clerk's office in Book E pages 459 & 460 sold as the property of Peter Farley Winn, and now in the possession of said Winn shall go to the son of the said Peter Farley Winn named Abel Winn, as soon as the debts are paid by said property, which I have assumed for the said Peter Farley Winn.

4th It is again my will, that a certain tract of land sold as the property of the said Peter Farley Winn, & purchased by me at Sheriff's sales, and sold by Benjamin Melle, Sheriff of Liberty County, to the same recorded in the Clerk's office in Book E pages 458 & 459, be the property of the son of the said Peter Farley Winn, named Abel Winn, as soon as the debts are paid which I assumed for the said Peter Farley Winn.

5th It is also my will, that the following named negroes, to wit, Charlotte, Harriet, Abby, Lewis, David, Senah, Peggy, Elizabeth, Frank, Bristol, Bob, Soney, & George, making thirteen in number and now in the possession of the said Peter Farley Winn, and purchased by me at Sheriff's sales from William Minnwell, the then Sheriff of Liberty County (bill of sale recorded in the Clerk's office in Book I folio 257) be the property of the son of this said Peter Farley Winn, named Abel Winn, together with the future increase of the females, as also the increase of the female slaves named in the third item of this my will, to him, & to his heirs & assigns, so soon as the debts are paid, which I assumed for the said Peter Farley Winn.

Item 6th I give and bequeath to my beloved son Joseph Austin my young horse called Liverpool

7th I give, devise and bequeath to my said beloved son Joseph Austin my principal dwelling house, and furniture and out buildings, where I now reside reserving the free use & privilege of the same to my affectionate wife, and her sister Fanny Kelley, together with the furniture, as it now stands, also a supply of provisions, vegetables & other products of the plantation for family use, and the benefit of the stock, together with a sufficiency of good land for the negroes belonging to my said wife and her sister to plant and enjoy the same during their natural lives, as they did during my life time.

8th It is also my will and desire, that my said wife and her sister Fanny Kelley, be provided with a good girl, horse and boy, to be at their or either of their disposal at all times during their natural lives. - I would leave my wife more, but she has been amply provided for

by a marriage settlement between herself & myself

9th I give and bequeath to my said beloved son Joseph Austin the following negroes, to wit, Venus, Lamberton, Isobel, Lucy, Caleb, Little Sally, Briton, Alice and Andrew, making nine & to him & to his heirs and assigns forever.

10th I give and bequeath to my daughter Abigail King, the wife of Reuben King, to her & to the heirs of her body, the following negroes, to wit, Sally, Arrington, Anny, Nancy and Pompey. The last three negroes named I claim under and by virtue of my former wife's will, being the issue of a certain wench named Sylvia, said will recorded in the Clerk's office of Liberty County. I do here negroes not to be subject to the debts of Reuben King, the husband of my said daughter.

11th I give and bequeath to my nephew Bartholomew & Busby a certain silver gelding, in his possession, named Napoleon. Also one tract of land containing 105 acres, being a part of original tract now owned by my said nephew, & purchased from Mr. James S. Bullock, administrator of the estate of John Elliott, & formerly owned by Robert Johnson.

12th Item, The residue of my estate, both real & personal, to be equally divided, one half to my son Joseph, and the other half to my daughter Abigail King, & the heirs of her body & in no wise to be subject to the debts of her husband Reuben King.

13th It is my will, that in case my said son Joseph Austin should die intestate, & without issue, then his part of my estate bequeathed him become the right and property of my said daughter Abigail King, to her & to the heirs of her body forever.

14th Lastly, I do hereby nominate and appoint my trusty friend Reuben King, my son Joseph Austin ~~and~~ my nephew Bartholomew & Busby my executors to carry out my last will & testament into effect, revoking all others made by me.

In witness whereof I the said Joseph Austin have hereunto set my hand & seal, this twenty eighth^{28th} day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine. 1829.

Signed, sealed, published & declared by the above named Joseph Austin as and for his last will & testament in presence of us, who have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto, in the presence of the said testator, & of each other.
