Knowing the uncertainty of life and having a large family to provide for, I Joseph Jones being of sound mind and memory, thanks be to God, do hereby make this my last will and testament disposing of such real estate both real and personal as it hath pleased God to bless me in the following manner.

I have 1st I give and bequeath unto my son James Newton Jones and Cousin West Jones my plantation called the Retreat, the improved part to belong to Newton and the other part to be divided among them in the most equitable manner. The above place contains my four thousand four hundred and sixty acres in nine tracts of land all adjoining in several surveys, a considerable part of this same taken from the surveys of Robert Hendrix County Surveyor by John Stacy Surveyor; above lands lying on the waters of South River part Creek and Port Town Swamp, Cypress Run and Sandy Run all and lands granted to James Belcher and lands belonging to Moses I Jones Estate of Cal Lacer, now Barnard, Roswell King John Ashman and land formerly owned by Thomas Beasdale, now in possession of Joseph B Lacer; And it is my last and earnest wish that my wife Elizabeth Jones and any of my daughters whilst remaining single and unmarried or unmarried sons shall have the joint use and possession of planting the same till they are married or settled otherwise as I concerns there is time enough by proper management, to accommodate him, especially too where brotherly and sisterly spirit is manifested to wards each other, which I hope will soon be the case, as such has been the case whilst their father lived, who hopes and doubts not it will be continued after he is consigned to that narrow home allotted to his own. Now I give and bequeath unto my son Charles Benson Jones a tract of land purchased at the sale of Joseph Hargreaves containing upwards of three hundred acres more or less adjoining lands belonging to the said Charles B Jones, bought of Miller and adjoining lands belonging to the Estate of Selontie or Joel. Bullock, also the balance of a pine tract, containing upwards of one hundred acres purchased from the estate of Anderson, adjoining lands of Thomas Quaintance, now lying on a branch called Rattle Snake gap, part of same had cut off and sold to the said Thomas Quaintance as per plat of Mr John Hargreaves placed on the original grant; And I also give and bequeath unto my said wife Elizabeth a plantation near the same hills called wild wood purchased from the Mr Gummery, containing four hundred acres more or less adjoining lands belonging to Joseph Anderson formerly Mr Callough and lands of Thomas Quaintance and lands of Andrew Maybank Jones.

Now I give and bequeath unto my beloved daughter Mary Jones, the wife of the Reverend C. C. Jones, my two vacant lots in Andover situate on the Bay River as numbers 29 and thirty where the remains of my dear mother lie; I would leave my daughter maid, but have already given her and tiller made to the same a husband of lands called Calcutta and beside she is amply provided for by a marriage settlement between myself and her deceased Mother, recorded in the Clerk of the County Book I pages 134, & 135; securing certain negroes from which she has already derived a profit, and settled in a contract between her and her husband the Rev C. C. Jones.
