In the name of God. Amen. I Joseph Law, being weak of body, but of sound mind, do make this my last will & testament, revoking all others heretofore made by me.

Item 1st I do hereby appoint my beloved son Doctor John S. Law, my two sons in law, James O. Guignemine & William M. Blair Maxwell, and Joseph Jones, my executors.

2^d It is my will, that all suits or actions brought by me for the benefit of other persons be removed by my executors; provided all expenses for attorneys' fees, &c. are furnished & paid by those persons interested in such suits or actions.

3^d It is my will, that all my just debts be paid; & my property, both real and personal, be equally divided amongst my wife & children.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal, this 1st day of February 1829.

Joseph Law

Signed, sealed & acknowledged before us, & in the presence of each other, as the last will & testament of said testator, the day above written & given.
