In the name of God Amen I King C. Wilkins of the town of Dunbar in Liberty County being sick and weak in body but of perfect mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, touching such worldly estate wherewithal it has pleased God to bless me, and which I give, devise and dispose of in the following manner and form:

1st I bequeath to Joseph Jones, and my son James Samuel Wilkins, the following negro slaves, with their future increase, to wit, Rosanna, Betty and Adam, in trust for the benefit and support of my daughter Ann E. Bowen, and her issue.

2nd Secondly I also bequeath to Joseph Jones, and my son James Samuel Wilkins, ten shares of the Planters Bank in Savannah, in trust for the benefit and support of my daughter Ann Elizabeth Bowen and her issue.

3rd Thirdly To my son James Samuel Wilkins, I give Luke, Nelson, Nancy, William, Amos, Maty, Phile, Scipio and Simon, together with their future increase; also Helen's child Rebecca, & Phile's child Sandy, to him and his heirs forever.

¶ 4. Fourthly, To my husband Samuel Wilkins, I give and bequeath the balance due and claimed by me from the estate of James Cochran deceased.

¶ 5. Fifthly, I give and bequeath to my son James S. Wilkins all and singular the negro slaves, in this instrument willed and bequeathed, to my said son James S. Wilkins, in trust for the benefit and support of my daughter Ann E. Bowen, and her issue.

¶ 6. Sixthly, In case of the death of my daughter the said Ann E. Bowen without issue, or in case of issue, if such issue shall die intestate, leaving no issue, or surviving partner, as husband or wife, then it is my will and bequest, and I hereby will and bequeath to Joseph Jones all and singular the aforesaid negro slaves, in this instrument willed and bequeathed, to my said son James S. Wilkins all and singular the negro slaves by me in this instrument willed and bequeathed to my said daughter Ann E. Bowen.

¶ 7. Seventhly, I constitute, name and appoint my husband Samuel Wilkins, my son James S. Wilkins and Joseph Jones Esq. executors of this my last will and testament.

¶ 8. To avoid ambiguity, doubt and litigation, and that my true meaning and intention may be the more fully comprehended, I declare the following to be the said true meaning and intention, to wit, that the trustees herein before mentioned in behalf of my daughter the said Ann E. Bowen, that is to say, in the first, second and fifth items of this my last will and testament, be empowered, and hereby are empowered, to receive for, and appropriate to, the only and personal support of my said daughter Ann E. Bowen, and her issue, the interest, hire, profits and waits, and emoluments, of said negro slaves and bank stock, by me herein before willed and bequeathed to my said daughter Ann E. Bowen, for and during her natural life, and after her death, the whole of the property willed to my daughter Ann E. Bowen and her issue, with the profits or increase of the same, to be equally divided between her children that may come to lawful age, or many. If any of her children die leaving lawful issue, the issue shall have the parent's part. I give it to them and their heirs forever. And I further declare it to be my will and meaning, and intention, that the before mentioned bequests, herein by me made and bequeathed to my said daughter Ann E. Bowen, together with the said the interests, hire, profits, waits and emoluments of said bequests, be not, and they are hereby declared not to be, subject to the will, disposal, debts or debts of her husband, but that they be, as before mentioned, by said trustees appropriated to the sole and personal support of my daughter and her issue. But if my husband Mr. Samuel Wilkins die before me, I shall then be possessed of more property than I have at this time. Suppose all such property as I may hereafter become possessed of, of whatever kind it may be, my will is, that it shall be divided into two equal parts: one half I give unto my son James Samuel Wilkins, in the same manner, subject to the same provisos and conditions, as the request that I have given him above, in this my will, to him and to heirs forever. The other half of the property that I may possess by the death of my husband, when the same is divided into two equal parts, I give that half which is not yet disposed of, to my son James S. Wilkins and Joseph Jones, in trust for the support of my daughter E. Bowen and her issue, during her natural life; and at her death to be divided, share and share equal, amongst her children that may marry or come to lawful age. If any of her children die leaving lawful issue, the issue shall have the parent's part.

And I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul, all and every other former testament and wills by me in any wise before made, except and confirming this as my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this thirty first of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty eight.
Signed, sealed, published and declared by her said Mary C. Wilkins as her last will and
