I Daniel Stewart, of the State and County aforesaid, planter, do make this my will & testament as follows, to wit, I give & bequeath to my dear wife Sarah all the property which she brought me when married, except such as has been sold or died, with the increase of the females, to her and her assigns forever. I also give her my household furniture during her life: at her death to be considered as my estate, except such part as she may give away. I also give my dear wife my four wheeled carriage, with the horses now belonging to the same, to her and her assigns forever. I give her the one half of my cattle & sheep, and all plantation tools, waggon, cart, ploughs, &c. I also give her the one half of such monies as may arise from the present crop, after all my just debts are finally paid. - It is my intention and wish, that the whole of my landed estate remain for the use of my dear wife during her natural life, and she is hereby authorized to occupy any part of the same unincumbered; but at her death to be my estate for the benefit of my children or grand children, as the case may be. - I also give my dear wife my cooper fellow Bob, because I got him in an exchange for a fellow of Ebene of Jesse Hines. No part of corn provisions is to be taken from the plantation, unless by consent of my wife.

I now give and bequeath to my dear children or grand children the whole of the remainder of my property on the manner following; that is to say, It is my intention and wish, the same may be divided or put into four divisions, equal as possible. One division or fourth part I give and bequeath to my grand children, Daniel, Sarah & Ripley, children of my deceased son John to them, and their heirs and assigns forever. I give and bequeath to my grand children, the children of Col. Josiah Wilson, one other division or fourth part, jointly, to them, their heirs and assigns forever. provided nevertheless, my daughter Mary to have the use of this little pittance during her life. I give and bequeath to my son Daniel M. Stewart one other division or fourth part of my estate, together with my gold watch, to him, his heirs and assigns forever. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Mr. Martha Elliott one other division or fourth part of my estate for her own use, to her and her assigns forever. - My landed estate, with any other species of property, which may hereafter become (after the death of my wife) my estate, are to be distributed and divided in and among my children & grand children in an equal manner, by four dividends, as specified already.

I now nominate my dear wife Sarah an executrix, my friend Chertson Hines, my son in law Col. Josiah Wilson, & my son Daniel M. Stewart, Executors to this my last will and testament.
Signed, sealed and acknowledged before us, subscribing witnesses, this twenty third day of December eighteen hundred and twenty eight.
