Liberty being that I might in a private liberty value being used in of them and perfect mind and memory, I will they for the same, to make and publish, the last half, and testament, in presence and your loving — after all my last debts are paid, of which I am thoroughly satisfied the sum of three hundred dollars it is my wish, that my executor or administrator, or any person he may think proper, shall receive out of my estate the sum of the debt or debts of my lands, or from the sale or sales thereof, from my negroes, that he may pay to each of my two Daughters Eliza, and her annuity then payable, for the support of advancing their education.

I give to my dearly beloved wife, Clara, both my Sun, the Dollars in lieu of Dower - and all the remainder of my estate, both real and personal. I give and bequeath unto my wife, and my child, or his issue, he may now be pregnant with, and my three children, Anne, Anthony, & Mary, and Clara my daughter, Anne, Mary, John and Sarah alike.

It is my will, that my Son or Sons or the heirs my son may be bound to a good trade; untill the age of Twenty one years. and my Daughter or my daughters untill the age of eighteen years. and I do her by appoint my Friends my Son's Son & the whole sole executors, and Guardians, to my reformed wife and Children & to this my last will and Testament
