In the name of God Amen I Peter Winn, of the State and County aforesaid, being of sound mind and memory, calling to mind the uncertainty of life, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, in manner and form following: Be it known and understood, that the negro property, or slaves, with their issue, which I have loaned to my children, John Winn, Anne Fleming, Mary Bacon, Peter Farley Winn, Elias S. Stevens, are to be considered as belonging to my personal estate, and that each heir to pay equal proportion of my debts and legacies, and all expenses that may arise, which will hereafter follow by my will. My will is, that a head & foot stone be affixed to my former wife's grave, and to the graves of my deceased children, Sarah Winn, Abel Winn, and the Revd Thomas S. Winn, with such inscription as they see necessary, and the expense to be paid equally by my heirs, by order of my executors; and all subscriptions of mine, unpaid at my decease, to be paid equally by my heirs. My real and personal estate to be divided in manner following: I give to my beloved wife the wench called Betsey Kelly, and the fellow Robt, one horse and chair, say, gig, and the tract of land in Newfort, on the Big Swamp, which was bought by her former husband, Mr. Charles Carter from Mr. Dunham, containing one hundred acres more or less, in lieu of her dower, to her and her heirs forever.

I give to my son John Winn, my daughter Anne Fleming, my daughter Mary Bacon, and my son Peter Farley Winn, all that tract, or tracts, of land in Effingham County, formerly St. Matthews Parish, containing two hundred and fifty acres, surveyed by Mr. Farley, executor of Rev. Farley Senr. and fifty acres adjoining the above, purchased by Mr. Farley, from one John Senr. for Rev. & Mary Farley. The above tracts are on the Big Bay. Also the half of a five hundred acre tract, on Satilla River, formerly St. David's Parish, now county of Camden, granted to Joseph Farley and Wm. Gibbons in trust for Rev. and Mary Farley adjoining lands of the Estate of the Revd. Zuberbillo. Also one lot, No 7019, in Savannah, St. Paul's parsonage, which was bought by old Mr. Farley from the Revd. Mr. Luby. I give the said lands, and lots of land, to them and their heirs forever.

My will is, that my widow shall have the use of my dwelling house, and as much land as will be necessary to work her hands upon, and household furniture during my widow.

The remainder of my property, both real and personal (including those negroes with their issue, which I have loaned to my children, as above mentioned) shall be equally divided between my beloved wife, Betsey Kelly, John Winn, Anne Fleming, Mary Bacon, Peter Farley

Winn, Charles S. Stevens, Washington Winn, Ann Oswald Winn, I give to those dearest their natural life's after death, to be here together of their body. If any of said children should die without an heir bequest of their body in their case, their proportion shall, after their death, shall return to my surviving children, and grand children if their parents should be dead.

My lands & houses on the Colonel's Island I leave to the use of my widow, & such children wish to occupy, during the summer and fall months. My right in Midway meeting house to be divided between my widow & all my children.

I constitute, nominate and appoint my beloved wife executrix, my son John Wynn, St. Johns, and my nephew Thomas Bacon, & friend Richard S. Baker, executors, of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and disannulling all other wills and testaments heretofore by me made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal, this twenty fourth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nineteen. 1819.

The last will & testament of Elizabeth Hughes, of Liberty County, State of Georgia, as I Elizabeth Hughes, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, & being of sound mind & memory, do make and publish this my last will & testament in manner & form following, that is to say, my four negroes named Peter, Big Lou, Little Liz & Lanny, I distribute in the following manner: viz. I give & bequeath to my son William Hughes & his heirs forever, one third of the above mentioned negroes.

I give & bequeath to the children of my deceased daughter Esther Price, & their heirs forever, another third of said negroes, to be equally divided them.

I give & bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth Bacon, the use & labor of the remaining part of said negroes, ~~that she dispose of the said Elizabeth Bacon to be equally raised~~ during the full term of her natural life; & at the decease of the said Elizabeth Bacon, to be equally divided between her children, to them & their heirs forever.

I give & bequeath to my grandson, Nathaniel M. Colburn, the sum of one hundred dollars, to be paid him within one year after my decease.

I do hereby appoint William Hughes, Joseph Dixon, & William Ogden, executors of this my last will & testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made in writing, whosoever I have hitherto by my hand & seal this fourth day of September in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred & thirty
