In the name of God Amen I Sarah S. M. Gowen, being of sound and perfect mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following; that is to say, I do hereby give and bequeath unto my nephew John M. Myddelton, one negro slave named Charles, to have and to hold the same to the proper benefit and use of him and his heirs forever. Should John M. Myddelton die under age, this same negro slave named Charles to go to my brother Augustus Myddelton's other children, to have and to hold the same to the proper benefit and use of them and their heirs forever. — It is also my will, that all the remainder of my estate, both real and personal, of which I may be possessed, or of right ought to possess or claim, over and above what may be required to pay my just debts, be equally divided between my grand daughter Sarah M. Stacy, and my grandson John M. Gowen, to have and to hold the same to them and their heirs forever.

Lastly, I do hereby appoint and constitute my friends, Joseph S. M. Gowen and William N. Way executors of this my last will and testament; and do hereby revoke and make void all other wills by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this day of October 27, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and twenty nine.
