I Thomas Stevens, of Liberty County, in the State of Georgia, Physician, at present in the city of Charleston in the State first aforesaid, being of a sound disposing mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say, I devise and bequeath to my son William Baker Stevens the plantation or tract of land, on which I have for some time past resided, to him and his heirs forever.

It is my will and desire that my executors, herein after named shall, as soon as may be convenient, after either of my daughters, Susan Rebecca Stevens, and Mary Graves Stevens, shall attain the age of twenty one years, or be married, cause my negroes to be valued, and divided into three equal parts or lots between my son & daughters above named.

It is also my will, that until the event above mentioned, of either of my daughters arriving at twenty one years, or being married, that my negroes should be kept together, & worked for the equal support of my said children, and that the share of my daughter Mary's negroes be worked together with my son William's share, until she shall arrive at twenty one years, or be married. It is my desire that my executor, herein after named, shall continue to afford my son the means of completing his education in the best manner that my estate will allow. — I do hereby nominate & appoint my brother Samuel Stevens, and my friends Elijah Baker and Thomas Mallard executors of this my last will & testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, at Charleston; this tenth of May one thousand eight hundred & eighteen.
