State of Georgia

Liberty County } Know all men by these presents, that we, Moses W. May, Eugene Bacon, Thomas G. May & William H. Bacon, are held and firmly bound and obliged unto the Judges of the Court of Ordinary for the County of Liberty in the State aforesaid in the sum of six thousand dollars, to be paid to the said Judges, their successors in office, or assigns; for which payment, well and truly to be made and done, we bind ourselves, jointly and severally, and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated at Okefenobee, the fourth day of January in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bounden Moses W. May and Eugene Bacon, administrators of the goods, chattels and credits of Thomas W.
Bacon, late of said County deceased, do make a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of the said Moses W. and Eugene, or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for them, and the same, so made, do exhibit unto the said Court of Ordinary when they shall be thereto required, and such goods, chattels and credits do well and truly administer according to law, and make a just and true account of their doings and doings, therein, when required by the Superior Court, or Court of Ordinary, for the County; and all rest of the goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the account of the said administration, the same being first allowed by the said Court, shall deliver and pay to such persons respectively as are entitled to the same by law. And if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the said deceased, and the same be proved before the Court, and executors obtain a certificate of the probate thereof, and the said Moses W. and Eugene in such case, if required, render and deliver up the said letters of administration, then the ligation to be void, else to remain in full force.

Joseph Austin, are held and firmly bound unto the Judges of the Court of Ordinary for said County, and to their successors in office, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, for the payment whereof, which sum, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, jointly and severally, and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated at Riceborough, this eleventh day of January in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred thirty.

The condition of this obligation is such, that if the above bound Reuben King, administrator de bonis non, with the will annexed, of the goods and chattels, rights and credits of Henry Austin deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of the said Reuben King, or into the possession of any other person for him; and the same, so made, do exhibit to the said Court, or Court of Ordinary ^{said} for the County, at such time as he shall be thereunto required, and the same goods, chattels and credits do well and truly administer, according to and make a just and true account of his acting and doing when by law required; and further, do well and truly pay and deliver all the legacies contained and specified in said will, as far as the said goods, chattels and credits will extend, or the law require; then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.
