in Boston he agreed to forward him my copy, beloved son Charles Freeman Walker on the same. Altho I do greatly regret that my dear wife & sons Walter, my eldest, and the youngest of my children and Frederick, son William's eldest, I have never seen as yet and not had his thirty-first day of March, on the year of our last one. However, since I have seen and much more pleased and signed by the Father, as has last time and testament on the presence of the wife of his Regent, as has Dorchester, and in the presence of each other have acknowledged their names as witnesses.
