William Harper S. C. C.

In the name of God Amen I James Harris of the State of Georgia and County of Lincoln being Sick and weak in body but of perfect and sound mind and Memory Thanks be unto almighty god for the same but calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing it is appointed for all men once to die, do make constitute and ordain this my last will and testament (viz) principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul in to the hands of almighty god who gives it and my body to the earth to be buried in a decent and Christian burial at the discretion of my Executors nothing doubting but to receive the same again by the mighty power of god when soul and body are reunited at the General Resurrection. And I do hereby give and bequeath all my worldly state wherein with it hath pleased god to bless our with I give and dispose of in manner and form following viz: first My Will and desire is that all my last debts may be paid and then I lend unto my beloved wife Sally the land and plantation whereon I now live together with the following negroes viz: Simon, Port and Fanny, together with all and sundry of my stock of horses, cattle and hogs as also all my household and kitchen furniture during her widow hood and in case she should marry my wife is that she should have an equal part with my children during her natural life and the remainder to be kept together for the use of my children viz: Henry, Betty, James Adams and one that I am apprehending that my wife now is pregnant with to be equally divided as the others at maturity and after my wife's decease my desire is that her fourth part of the land may in like manner be equally divided among my children and in case my wife should not marry after my decease and the estate remain in her hands to wit the one fourth thus and in that case after her decease my will and desire is that her part may be equally divided between my children Henry, Betty, James Adams and the one she is now pregnant with to them and their heirs forever

I nominate and appoint my loving wife Sally executrix and my two friends William Dawson and Robert Paul Executors to this my last Will and testament and charge them with payment of my last debts and the education of my children whom I desire to have well educated in literature at their own expense out of their share of patrimony. I do hereby disavow all former wills and Testaments ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament.
