The last will and Testament of William Wallam du^o recorded this 17th of Febry 1804

William Harper Esq.

In the name of God Amen I John Walker of Lincoln County and State of Georgia being sick and weak of body but of sound mind & memory Thanks be to almighty god for the same but Calling to mind the Mortality of my body and knowing it is appointed for all men once to die do make and constitute this my last will and Testament. In the first place I recommend my soul to god who gave it and my body to the earth to be buried in a decent Christian manner at the discretion of my Executors here after named in love and certain hope that my body will be raised again by the mighty power of god to eternal life - as touching my worldly goods which it has pleased god to bless me with here on me I dispose of in form and manner following Viz. I desire that my Just debts may be paid out of my personal property if sufficient at the discretion of my Executors. then my will and desire is that my loving wife Sarah may possess and enjoy all of my property both real and personal for the use of her and my children during her my said wife's natural life or widowhood but in case she should die in any in that case my wife or that she may enjoy one third of my property during her natural life and after her death the same to be divided among my
