

WILL OF MRS. MAGGIE E. CAMPBELL.

I, Mrs. Maggie E. Campbell, of the county and State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all heretofore made.

Item 1st.

I desire and direct that all of my property, real and personal, and all of my property of any kind, character and description, be held and kept together by my executor until my youngest child arrives at the age of twenty-one years, or until each and all of my children arrives at the age of twenty-one years, and all of my said property to be used for the support of my children, and for the education of my minor children, the extent of said education to be left to the discretion of my executor, but in each case to be as complete as the condition of my estate will permit, depending of course, upon the desire and willingness of the child to be educated, any of my children after arriving at the age of twenty-one years, and then unmarried, shall be supported from my estate, by my executor, provided and such child shall live at the home provided for all of my children, but after such child leaves the home provided for all of my children, then such child shall no longer be supported from my estate, it is also my desire and I so direct my executor that if at any time my beloved father shall not be able to support himself comfortably, that he shall be supported by my executor from my estate, so long as the same is held and kept together as herein before provided my executor is fully authorized and empowered to use the corpus of my estate, as well as the income for the support and education of my children and for the support of my father, as herein before provided in this item, when my youngest child arrives at the age of twenty-one years and there is any property left after being used for the purpose herein mentioned then I desire and direct that such surplus of my property so remaining shall be equally divided between all of my children share and share alike, and such property when so divided shall become the property of each of said children in fee simple.

Item 1st.

I desire and direct that all my debts be paid by my executor herein after named, as soon as possible after my death,

Item 3rd.

I hereby constitute and appoint my friend D.C. Ashley, Executor of this my last will and testament, with full power and authority to sell at public or private sale any of my property real or personal and without any order of the court of Ordinary having jurisdiction of my estate, and without any order of any court whatever and for cash or credit and on any other terms he may deem best, and to make and execute any and all necessary deeds, conveyances, transfers, or any other papers necessary to consummate any sale or of any of my property real or personal and to use the proceeds of any such sale for any purpose or purposes mentioned in item 1st, or 2nd, of this my will, or reinvest the proceeds of any such sale in any other property real or personal, that he may desire.

My executor is fully authorized to invest any money coming to my estate from any source whatever, at any time, in any property he may deem fit; My said executor is fully authorized and empowered to sell any property real or personal purchased as a reinvestment or in any other way, for my estate at public or private sale, and without any order from any court

WILL OF MRS. MAGGIE E. CAMPBELL.

State of Georgia, Lowndes County:

I, Mrs. Maggie E. Campbell, of the county and state aforesaid being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others heretofore made.

Item 1st.

I desire and direct that all my debts be paid by my Executor herein-after named as soon as possible after my death.

Item 2nd.

I desire and direct that all my property real and personal and all of my property of any kind character and description be held and kept together by my executor until my youngest child arrives at the age of twenty-one years, or until each and all of my children or until each and all of my children arrives at the age of twenty-one years, and all of my said property be used for the support of my children and for the education of my children, the extent of said education to be left to discretion of my executor, but in each case to be as complete as the condition of estate will permit; depending of course upon the desire and willingness of the child, to be educated, any of my children after arriving at the age of twenty-one years and then unmarried shall be supported from my estate by my executor, provided any such child shall live at the home provided for all of my children, but after such child leaves the home so provided for my children, then such child shall no longer be supported from my estate. It is also my desire and I so direct my executor that if at any time my beloved father shall not be able to support himself comfortably, that he shall be supported by my executor from my estate, so long as the same is held and kept together as herein before provided, My executor is fully authorized and empowered to use the corpus of my estate as well as the income for the support and maintenance of my children and for the support of my father, as herein before provided in this item, when my youngest child arrives at the age of twenty-one years and there is any property left after being used for the purpose herein mentioned, then I desire and direct that such surplus of my property so remaining shall be equally divided between all of my children share and share alike, and said property when so divided shall become the property of each of said children in fee simple.

Item 3rd,

I, hereby constitute and appoint my friend D.C. Ashley, Executor of this my last will and testament with full power and authority to sell at public or private sale any of my property real or personal and without any order of the court of Ordinary having jurisdiction of my estate, and without any order from any court whatever and for cash or credit, and on any other terms he may deem best, and to make and execute any and all necessary deeds, conveyances, transfers, or any other paper necessary to constitute any sale, or transfer, of any of my property real or personal, and to use the proceeds of any such sale, for any purpose or purposes, mentioned in item first, or second, of this my will, or reinvest the proceeds of any such sales in any other property real or personal, that he may desire, My Executor is fully authorized to invest any money coming to my estate from any source whatever at any time in any property he may deem fit. My said executor is fully authorized and empowered to sell any property real or personal, or to be so shaped as a reinvestment or in any other way for my estate at public or private sale.

and without any order from any court, and my said executor any investment of my estate at any time in his discretion; and for its purpose he is authorized to sell at public or private sale, and without any order of any court, any property real or personal belonging to my estate, I hereby authorize and empower my executor to borrow money at any time he may deem it necessary for the use of my estate in any way and he is fully authorized and empowered to secure any money so borrowed with mortgages on any property of my estate real or personal or by pledges or transfers, of stocks, bonds, notes, choses of action belonging to my estate, and it shall not be necessary for my said executor to procure the order of any court to borrow money or secure the same in the manner herein provided, I hereby fully authorize my executor to do any thing in the management of my estate that he may deem necessary and for the best interest of my estate, whether such things are specifically mentioned or authorize or not herein, and whatever my executor may consider and deem best for my estate, he is authorized to do without the order of the court of ordinary or any other court having jurisdiction of my estate.
