

The Will of Allen Jones.

State of Georgia
Gwinnett County.

In the name of God amen. I, Allen Jones of said State and County being of advanced age, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, knowing that I must shortly depart this life, deem it right and proper both as respects my family and myself, that I should make a disposition of property with which a most providence has blessed me. I do therefore make this my last will and testament hereby revoking and annulling all others by me heretofore made.

First:

I desire and direct that my body be buried be buried in a decent and Christianlike manner suitable to my circumstances and condition in life my soul I shall return to God with thanksgiving and hope for salvation through the merits and atonement of the blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Secondly:

I desire and direct that my just debts be paid without delay by my executors hereinafter named and appointed.

Thirdly:

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife (Eliza) for and during her natural life, (without power to dispose by will or otherwise) one lot of Land (numbered 57) in the relevant District of Gwinnett County being the improved land on which we now live. I also give and bequeath to my beloved wife in the same manner, the farming utensils used on and belonging to the farm said lot of Land. And also my Carriage horse and Carriage, my other live stock of each kind and every kind whenever found, all the premises, growing crop (if any) and all my household and kitchen furniture. And I direct my Executors not to make any sale or alienation of my land or wife in the forable person and holding of the property herein given her (for and during her natural life).

Fourthly:

The residue of my property both real and personal whatever and whatever it may including that given to my wife in the third article of this Will, for and during her natural life only (after her estate herein is over) I give bequeath and devise in equal shares to the heirs of my natural body, and heirs of the body of my wife (Eliza) to wit: Sarah Walker, Susanna Whipple, Thomas A. Jones (deceased), Aaron C. Jones, Marion H. Hall (deceased), Mrs. John H. Hall and Rebecca H. Hall in fee simple and forever.

Fifthly:

I hereby constitute and appoint my Son, Aaron C. Jones and Son, Newcomb both of the County and State aforesaid, Sole Executors of this last Will and Testament. This February 11th 1871.

Allen Jones

Signed, sealed, signed and published by Allen Jones as his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us the undersigned who subscribed our names in the presence of said testator at his official residence and in the presence of each other This February 11th 1871.
