Last Will and Testament of Homer Young deceased.

State of Georgia
Lowndes County

In the name of God, Amen!

I, Homer Young of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament;

First

I give bequeath and devise to John T. Roberts, Jerry B. Jones and Larnie W. Young as Trustees for my wife Fannie Young and my children Corrie and Ulee Young all and singular the personal property of every kind nature and description owned by me at the time of my death. The said Trustees to pay all my debts and the expenses incurred during my sickness, out of the said personally. And for the purpose of carrying out this devise I hereby empower the said Trustees to sell exchange or otherwise dispose of said personally as they may deem for the best interest of my said wife and children and to reinvest the proceeds thereof by them in any manner they may see proper. Always having in view the interest and protection of the estate que trust. And in order that said Trustees may act freely in the premises, I direct that they execute the powers herein conferred without applying to any Court for any order or decree, but that they use their own judgment and discretion.

Second

I hereby appoint my said wife Fannie Young Guardian for my said children Corrie and Ulee Young, and request that she exercise said said Guardianship without giving bond for that purpose.

Third

I direct if there should be any any funds remaining in the hands of John W. Young and John T. Roberts, Trustees, after paying the amounts as specified in the deed making them Trustees, which deed is dated the 15th day of March, 1888, and signed by A. T. MacIntyre then and in that event the said funds so remaining shall equally divided between my six oldest children, or if any dead their heirs, to wit: Lodie G. Jones, Henry W. Young, Lawrence D. Dutton, Hanna G. Payton, Kate Roberts and John W. Young.
