Georgia Macon County

In the name of God
amen.

I Edgar M. Butt, of the County and State aforesaid being of sound disposing mind and memory, but knowing that I must someday depart this life, deem it proper that I make disposition of the property with which a kind Providence has blessed me, do make and execute this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills by me heretofore made.

Second

It is my desire that all my just debts be paid by my executors hereafter named, so soon after my death as the same may be practically be done.

Third

After the payments of my debts as above provided for, I give, bequeath and devise unto my daughter Lizzie R. Crane, my son John P. Butt and to said John P. Butt in trust for my two daughters Mary E. & Lelicia R. Butt, all my property of every description, whether real, mixed personal or choses in action, said property to be divided equally between the four, share and share alike.

It is my desire and intention by this instrument to raise a trust estate as in the midst of Mary E. & Lelicia R. my daughters and I hereby appoint said John P. Butt trustee for the said trust estate and execute these trusts. He shall have power as such trustee over the property herein devised in trust as if the same was his own, with power to sell alien and convey the same. (or to encumber the same) either at public or private sale upon such terms as to him may seem best for the interests of his estate & the trusts + to make such disposition of the proceeds as he may deem best, without being required to obtain an order either from the Court of Equity or the Chancery Court for that purpose and he shall be required to make annual returns, as required by law of administrators guardians or trustees.

It is my intention to leave the management of said trust estate entirely in the discretion of my son Jno P. Butt.
