State of Georgia } In the name of God, Amen!
Fulton County }

I James Perryman, of the County of Marion, in said State, being of advanced age, and knowing that I must, in a few years, by the course of nature, depart this life, deem it right and proper, both as it respects my family and myself, that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind Providence has blessed me, and being at this time sound in mind and body, do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all others heretofore made by me.

Item 1st

I desire that my body be buried in a decent and Christenlike manner, suitable to my circumstance and condition in life, my soul, I trust, shall return to rest, with God who gave it, as I hope for eternal salvation through the merits and atonement of the blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, whose religion I have professed and preached, and as I humbly trust, enjoyed for many years.

Item 2^d I devise and direct that all my just debts be paid without delay by my executors hereinafter appointing as I am unwilling my Creditors should be delayed in their rights as there is no reason or necessity for it.

Item 3^d I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary C. Perryman, one half of my house hold and kitchen furniture, my carriage and horses, and a handsome support for herself, out of my estate, for one year, after my death. My reason for not bequeathing more to my beloved wife, is this, we entered into a marriage contract so far as our negro property was concerned before our marriage was solemnized, to wit; on the thirteenth day of August A.D. Eighteen Hundred and fifty, by the terms of said contract she retained all of the negro property of which she was possessed or which should be by her inherited, which property is an abundant support for her during her life.

Item 4th I give, bequeath and devise to my son Anthony Perryman, the following named property, subject to the limitations and restrictions hereinafter made, to wit; my house and lot on which I now reside in the town of Freena Vista Marion County Georgia and the North half of lot of land number (115) one hundred and seventy five in the fourth District of Original Muscogee now Marion County with all the rights number and appurtenances thereto belonging, and also the following named slaves, to wit; Sam. Monroe, Talbot, Jackson, Paul, Arch. Jam. Catherine, Legg, Black Martha, Feckey, Mary and her infant child, Reena and her child, with their future increase, and also Sallie with her increase.

Item 5th I give and bequeath to my daughter Eliza A. Jones wife of John P. Jones, the following property, subject to limitations and restrictions hereinafter made, to wit; Scott, Warren, Harrison, Bill, Jack, Oseas, Emily, Yellow Martha, and her infant child, Maria, Ella and her infant child, Harriet, Rachael, Anne and Emily (daughter of Emily) and their future increase.

Item 6th It is my will and desire that my kinship go

Item 7th It is my express will and desire that all the property bequeathed to my son Anthony S Perryman in the fourth item of this will, shall not in any manner liable to the debts or contracts of my said son, but he shall be entitled to the use and control of said land and negroes during his natural life, and at his death said property is to go and vest in his children.

Item 8th It is my express will and desire that all of the property bequeathed to my daughter Eliza A M Jones in the fifth item of this will, shall not in any manner subject to the debts or contracts of her husband or any future husband, but she is to have the use and control of said negroes during her natural life and after her death said property or negroes is to go to and vest in her children.

Item 9th It is my will that if my son or daughter either should die leaving no child or children, then the property shall go to and vest in the surviving children whether of my son or daughter.

Item 10th I hereby nominate and appoint my son Anthony S Perryman and my son in law John B Jones Executors to this my last Will and Testament signed sealed published and declared by James Perryman as his last Will and Testament in my presence of us who signed our names thereto in the presence of the testator at his instance and request and in the presence of each other May 31st 1857

Samuel H. Crawford being duly impressed with the uncertainty of life, and desiring to make a proper disposition of my property, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament to be effected, but after my death.

Item 1st I give and bequeath all of my property of all kinds whatsoever to my beloved wife, subject to the hereinafter provisions and limitations.
That is to say, I desire all of my property to remain together off (for) the support and maintenance of my wife and the support maintenance and education of my children; but in the event my wife should marry again, it is my desire that my property shall be divided, share and share alike with her and my children.

Item 2nd I hereby appoint my wife sole executrix of my will, and desire and direct that she shall have power and authority to pay my debts and manage my property, and to do which she is authorized to sell any property she may desire, either privately or publicly as she may think best, and buy other property as she may think fit.

Item 3rd I desire that my wife shall have full authority power to settle up my estate by the pay ment of my just debts and the collection of my just
