Georgia Marion County.

In the name of God amen.

I James R. Ingham of said state and county being of feeble health, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, knowing that life is uncertain deem it right and proper both as respects my family and myself that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind providence has blessed me.

I do therefore make this my last will and testament hereby revoking and annulling all others by me heretofore made

First

I desire and direct that my body be buried in a decent and Christian like manner suitable to my circumstances and condition in life. My soul I trust shall return to rest with the God who gave it, as I hope for salvation through the merits and atonement of the blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Second

I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid without delay by my executors hereafter named and appointed

Third

It is my will and desire that all my estate of every kind both real and personal be kept together by my executors for the support and maintenance of my wife and for the support maintenance and education of my children until the youngest then living child shall become sixteen years of age

When the same is to be sold by my executors either privately or publicly and for cash or on credit as they may deem most advantageous for the best interests of my estate, and the proceeds thereof be equally divided and distributed in the manner hereafter pointed out

Provided, that my executors are hereby granted full power and authority to sell at any time to such and such parts of my estate real and personal as they as they may think proper, as necessary for the payment of such debts as I may be owing at the time of my death and as may be necessary for the support and maintenance of my family. Also for the purpose of paying my debts or for the maintenance and support of my family, they are hereby granted full power and authority if in their opinion it will be necessary for the best interests of my estate, to borrow money thereon and to make and execute any and all necessary mortgages deeds or other instruments necessary to carry out this power

Fourth

After my youngest then living child shall have become sixteen years of age as stated in the third item of this will I desire and direct my executors to sell either publicly or privately as they may deem best for cash or on credit all of my estate of every kind real and personal, and after first paying such debts as may at that time be owing by my estate if any then I desire that the remaining proceeds be equally divided among my wife and children, share and share alike, except that that portion of this division that would go to my beloved son Morgan McMichael is to go absolutely to his wife Minnie Sheppard McMichael and if she should die before that time leaving children by him, then the same to go absolutely to such children of their issue as may be in life and if she should die without issue by him then the same to go and belong absolutely to him Morgan McMichael provided, that if in the distribution of my estate in the manner aforesaid, it should appear that that portion coming to my wife be less than Two Thousand Dollars then I direct that she be allowed to take Two Thousand Dollars to belong to her absolutely and the remainder be distributed and divided among my children as aforesaid also that either ~~erant~~ ^{erant} my wife be allowed before the sale of my personal property, to select and have set apart for her own use & benefit and to belong to her absolutely. So much of my household and kitchen furniture as she may deem necessary for her own use and convenience. It is my further will and desire that if any of my children should die before the distribution of my estate leaving a child or children, then his or her or their portion or share, is to go to and belong to said child or children.

Fifth

I hereby nominate and appoint my beloved wife Ella Amanda McMichael, and my beloved son Robt L McMichael executors of this my last will and testament, and direct that they execute the same, without giving any bond to the ordinary, Court of ordinary, Court of Equity or other tribunal.

Also I hereby exempt them from making any annual or other returns to the Court of ordinary or other Court, as I have confidence in them and believe they will carry out my will and desire for the best interests of my family and estate.

Sixth

While I have exempted my executors in the foregoing items of my will from making any returns to the Courts, yet, I direct that immediately after my death they prepare in a suitable account book, ~~the~~ ^{an} inventory of all my property real & personal, also as early as possible a list of all my indebtedness and in that way keep for their benefit of my children a record showing the receipts and disbursements of my estate. This direction I make as not compulsory on my executors, but simply give it as a suggestion.

Seventh

If at any time after my death my executors should deem it in their discretion, to be for the best welfare of my children and for their advantage and education to remove elsewhere, then they have and are hereby given power and authority to sell publicly or privately any portion of my property for the purpose of investing the proceeds in a home for their use and benefit the same to be held as a portion of my estate.

This April 20th 1893 James R McMichael (L.S.) signed, sealed and published by James R McMichael as his last will and testament in presence of us the undersigned who subscribed our names hereto in presence of said testator at this special instance and request and in presence of each other this April 20th 1893.

In the name of God
amen.

I Edgar M. Butts, of the County and State aforesaid being of sound disposing mind and memory, but knowing that I must some day depart this life, deem it proper that I make disposition of the property with which a kind providence has blessed me, do make and execute this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills by me heretofore made.

It is my ^{wish} desire that all my just debts be paid by my executors hereafter named, so soon after my death as the same may be practically be done.

After the payments of my debts as above provided for, I give, bequeath and devise unto my daughter Lizzie R. Crane my son John P. Butts and to said John P. Butts in trust for my two daughters Mary E. & Lelicia R. Butts. All my property of every description, whether real, mixed personal or choses in action, said property to be divided equally between the four, share and share alike.

It is my desire and intention by this instrument to raise a trust estate as in the trust of Mary E. & Lelicia R. my daughters and I hereby appoint said John P. Butts trustee for the said trust estate and estate of trusts.

He shall have power as such trustee as the
