

Joseph M. Smith

Joseph M. Smith of the County of Marion and State of Georgia, do hereby certify and disposing will make for my last will and testament

I have and have at this my will made Smith of said land and ground and good and true and find the highest estate to be also one hundred and adjoining this lot on the East, known as the Arco place, also two mules named Sam and Molly, two cows and two things named Pat and Jack and one Hicker, Rhoda, also my entire stock and also also five hundred and one in cash and in said Cash, also one hundred and one in cash and in my new two horse wagon and harness, also my farming utensils of all kinds, also all my tools and kitchen furniture of all kinds.

I do and bequeath unto my son, James M. Smith, of said County, and being in the County of said County, and Seventeen acres of my land in the County of said County, being in the twenty five hundred of said County

I further will and direct that my Executor, to be after appointed, pay to my grand son, Joseph M.
Smith, or to his heirs, the hundred dollars and of my Cash, not disposed of in the foregoing items of said will and direct that my Executors pay all of my Cash, not disposed of in the foregoing items, and in full of my debts, after paying out my debts and claims to my grand son, Joseph M. Smith, but two thirds of the same as to my son, J. M. Smith and the other third as to my daughter, Mary M. Smith (or her heirs) if living, or if dead to her child or children to be born, if not to be born, the portion given to my daughter or my children, to be several divided. I bequeath my wife, Martha Smith, and James M. Smith and J. M. Smith, my son of said County, to be constituted and appointed James M.
Smith my Executor to carry out his my last will and testament, this October 12, 1878.

Witness my hand and seal this October 12, 1878 Signed, published and sealed before me and before me in the presence of J. M. Smith and in the presence of J. M. Smith Marion County, W. Va. 1845-1915 www.georgiapioneers.com
Joseph M. Smith
James M. Smith
J. M. Smith