I Samuel B. Crawford being duly impressed with the uncertainty of life, and desiring to make a proper disposition of my property, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament to be convied out after my death.

Item 1st I give and bequeath all of my property of all kinds whatsoever to my beloved wife, subject to the hereinafter provisions and limitations.
That is to say, I desire all of my property to remain together off (for) the support and maintenance of my wife and the support maintenance and education of my children; but in the event my wife should marry again, it is my desire that my property shall be divided, share and share alike with her and my children.

Item 2nd I hereby appoint my wife sole executrix of my will, and desire and direct that she shall have power and authority to pay my debts and manage my property, and to do which she is authorized, to sell any property she may desire, either privately or publicly as she may think best, and buy other property as she may think fit.

Item 3rd I desire that my wife shall have full authorization to settle up my estate by the payment of my just debts and the collection of my just does and that the same may be done with as little delay as possible and no litigation if it can be honorably avoided. She is authorized to submit differences to arbitration and compromise doubtful claims -

Item 4

That my desire on any not to be misunderstood I repeat that I desire that my property remain together for the support of my wife and the maintenance and education of my children during the life of my wife if she remain single, but in the event she marries then I desire her to have from the estate the one third thereof. In the event she does not marry again I wish her to control the estate in as full and ample a manner as if she had a fee simple title to the same for the benefit of herself and her children -

Item 5

I desire my children as well educated as the estate will allow and if they shall desire I hope my Executors will not hesitate to spend a part of the corpus of my property for the purpose Signed sealed, published and declared in presence of - This Aug 18 1864 Samuel H. Crawford
