and memory but suffering under intense pain and fearing lest I should be called speedily away from earth do hereby make Constitute and establish this as my last will and testament and making declaration (thereof) by my words, do hereby dispose of all my earthly possessions in the manner following

After the payment of all my just debts I do hereby give and bequeath all my estate both real and personal and all things to me belonging to beloved wife Follown Meltou to be by her controlled, managed, and disposed of with full power, liberty and privilege of selling and buying trading and trafficking as seems right and proper to her trusting all to her discretion as long as she remains a widow or in case she should marry marry any more then during her natural life and at any time while the property is under her control she may keep any of the children that may marry and be in need but this shall be at her discretion, but if she should marry again then the entire remainder or balance of the property shall be equally divided among all my lawful heirs and she shall be entitled to receive an equal part with the other heirs and at her death the entire balance or remainder shall be equally divided among my lawful heirs

Item 2nd I do hereby nominate and appoint my said wife Follown Meltou my executor to execute and carry into effect this my last will and testament

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my name and affixed my seal in presence of the following witnesses, I signing in their presence and they signing in my presence this 28th November 1894. Signed Mitson Meltou

Probate

Court of Ordinary July Term 1881 Mrs Julia Ann Melton has this day offered for probate and record the last will and Testament of Milton Melton late of said County dec'd in Common form of Law and it appears from the testimony of Charles H. McColl one of the subscribing witnesses that Milton Melton did sign, seal, publish and declare the paper now offered for probate and record as his last will and testament in the presence of witness and also in the presence of the other two subscribing witnesses and at the time of the execution of the same he, the testator was of sound and disposing memory, that testator signed said will freely or for as witness knows or believes, that witnesses signed said will in presence of testator at his request.
 It is ordered that said paper offered for probate & record as the last will of Milton Melton dec'd, be declared to be his will and that the same is probated in Common form of Law
