

William Haggard, Nov.

Georgia Marion County

I William Haggard of said County and State being of advanced age but of sound mind and memory and desiring to dispose of the property with which I am provided by Providence has first made and published this my last will and Testament, then by revoking all ~~other~~ former wills heretofore made and made by me.

Item 1st I desire my body buried in a decent and Christian like manner suitable to my circumstances and Condition in life.

Item 2nd I desire that my just debts be paid as soon after my death as possible, by my executor. But it is my desire to "see no more."

Item 3rd It is my will and I hereby give and bequeath and devise to my wife, Feltice Haggard, all of my lands, stock of every kind, wheat, corn, horses, horse gear and kitchen furniture and all and every other species of property of what I may be seized and possessed, except the accounts I hold against my daughter, Martha Reid and her former husband, Enock Green. My said wife to have said first named property for and during her natural life or widowhood. And at the death or marriage of said wife, then upon the happening of either, it is my ~~will~~ ^{will} that my property of every kind above mentioned shall be divided among my children as set forth in the following (fourth) Item of my will.

Item 4th I give and bequeath to my daughter Martha Reid all the accounts which I now hold against her and her former husband, Enock Green, which accounts are to be turned over to her at my death, and I give her also one third of the house hold and kitchen furniture after the death of marriage of my wife, And to my son William M. Haggard I give bequeath and devise ~~the~~ ^{the} off the West side of lot No. 100, bounded and situated as follows: in one hundred and twenty acres in the land the Richard of said County to retain in a straight line across said two lots North and South, as far as my first cut line extend. And to the children of my deceased son John Haggard, I give and bequeath the same of the hundred acres, said such to be divided equally between said children from in number and to be paid to them in my lifetime as they respectively arrive to the age of twenty one years.

And to my daughter Frances Peckles I give bequeath and devise one hundred acres of land off the line said two lots and laying broadside with fifty acres before given to my son William M. the line running North and South across said two lots and part with right that said William M. and also one third of the House hold and kitchen furniture.

And to my daughter Ann E. Benson I give bequeath and devise one hundred acres of land the same being the balance or remainder of said my interest in said two lots of land mentioned above and one third of the House hold and kitchen furniture.

And I desire and direct that after the death of my wife Anne wife that all of my personal property in every kind, except the Accounts and House hold and kitchen furniture herein be-quested or in this my will, shall be by my Executor sold for cash and the money arising from the sale thereof shall be paid to my Executor of the said Hundred Acres and in full payment to the children of my son John and if the sale of said personal property shall not raise money enough to pay said children said six Hundred Acres then the deficit is to be paid equally out of the shares heretofore given to Frances Peckles and Ann E. Benson.

And it is my will and desire that my Executor hold in his hands without interest said six Hundred Acres and said children to get forth in the fourth year of this will.

The meaning of the third part of the will is that my wife to have and to hold all of my property of every kind, except the accounts I hold against said my daughter, Martha and her future husband, as long as she lives or until she marries, and when either one of these two things happens, then it is to be divided as is set out in the fourth and fifth Stems of this Will.

Attest I hereby appoint my son in law Andrew J. Deussen Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 26th day of May 1871 William Thaggard

Signed, sealed, declared and published by William Thaggard as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who subscribed the same in the presence of said Testator and each other at his request this 26th day of May 1871

W. C. McMichael
Thos W Lunnikin
Jas M Love

Georgia Marion County

Court of Ordinary June Term 1878.

Whereas Andrew J. Deussen has exhibited in open Court a paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of William Thaggard and asks that the same may be probated, in the usual form of law and admitted to record as such. Whereupon he offers Thos W Lunnikin as a witness who being duly sworn testifies that "he saw William Thaggard sign, seal, declare and publish said paper to be his last Will and Testament, that deceased signed it in the presence of the other subscribing witnesses and that all the witnesses signed it in the presence of Testator and of each other, and that Testator was of sound mind at the time of its execution & that he signed it of his own free will and choice. Whereupon it is ordered and adjudged that said paper exhibited as aforesaid be and is to be taken to be the last Will of said William Thaggard, be & admitted to record as such.

Jas M. Love

cc & y.