

Georgia. In the name of God Amen
William County, I Nicholas C. Bacon of said State and County, considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of life deem it right and proper both as respect myself and my family that I should make a disposition of the property with which Providence has blessed me. I therefore make this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all others heretofore made by me.

Item First I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid by my Executors and executors herein after named as soon as the circumstances of the case will admit of its being done as I am unwilling my creditors should be delayed of their just rights.

Item Second I will and direct that all my property both real and personal be kept together until my daughter Mary C. Bacon marries or becomes of age or until ^{she} ~~she~~ should marry.

Item Third I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary A. Bacon (at the happening of either of the events mentioned in the Second Item of my will) the one third part of all my property both real and personal. Her property I give to my wife above I give to her in trust not to be subject to any debt or contract of any future husband she may marry. I give my wife the privilege of selling this property given her and I appoint my worthy friend Josephus Hillman Trustee for the property herein bequeathed to my wife Margaret Bacon.

Item Fourth I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary C. Bacon the one third of all my property at the happening of either of the events mentioned in the Second Item of my will. The property above given not to be subject to any debt or contract of any husband she may marry and I appoint my Brother E. C. Bacon and my nephew A. B. H.
Simpson Trustees for the property herein bequeathed to my daughter Mary C. Bacon.

Ken Felt

I give & bequeath to my Son William T. Bacon in the the same manner and at the happening of either of the events mentioned in the second item of my will the one third part of my ^{house} both real and personal and I appoint my Brother W. B. Bacon and my Nephew Chas. H. Leggett, Guardians for the property herein bequeathed to my Son William T. Bacon.

Sept. 11/98

In case my wife Lucretia give birth to other child or children of me then, I will and direct that my property all to be equally divided share and share alike equally in the same manner and under the same restrictions as given before to my wife and any daughter.
