

State of Georgia } I Marshall Martin of the County of Meriwether } County and State aforesaid being of sound disposing mind and memory, commanding my soul to God, through our Lord Jesus Christ and Trusting in him alone for salvation, and my body to the dust from whence it came, and to be buried in a Christian like manner, do ordain this to be my last will and Testament,

Item first - I desire that all my just debts shall be paid, which are few and small at this time,

Item 2nd - I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Jane McCarty, Martin, one third part or portion of my home plantation comprising five lots of land (except a portion of one lot which I have herefore sold to Henry Harris) said five lots extending by estimation nine hundred and ninety acres, all of said lots lying and being in the Second District of originally Truly now Meriwether County and adjoining the lands of, Battell Campbell, Francis Boykin, Henry Harris, Isham Jackson, Thos Barnham & Thos St. George and my will is that my said wife shall have the whole of my present dwelling house, and out-houses appertaining thereto, I also give and bequeath to my said wife one third part of all my negroes I now have or may have at the time of my death, one third part of my stock of all kinds, one yoke of oxen, one wagon or cart, one four wheeled carriage, and all or as much as she may choose to keep of my household and kitchen furniture, except so much thereof as shall make my sons, Abram L. Martin and Peter L. Martin, equal in said household and kitchen furniture to what I have heretofore given to my sons above in these estates, The above property which I have given to my 56 said wife to be held by her during her natural life, and after her death to be equally divided between all my children to wit: Sarah H. Martin, William D. Martin, Polly Ann Cogburn, Abram C. Martin. Peter H. Martin and the children of my deceased daughter Elizabeth J. Wellborn, that is, the children of my said daughter Elizabeth J. Wellborn are to have one eighth part, or one share equally with each of my said other children of the above property left to my said wife during her life, I also give to my said wife in addition to what I have given her already, fifteen hundred dollars in cash. The above property which I have given to my said wife to be in loco of dower, 3rd Item.

I give to Abram C. Martin my son one feather bed and furniture, and the same amount of kitchen furniture my older children have heretofore had, also one horse worth one hundred dollars, the same he now has in prospect.

4th Item.

I give to my son Peter H. Martin one feather bed and furniture, and the same amount of kitchen furniture my older children have heretofore had, and one horse worth one hundred dollars which horse see more below.

5th Item.

I give to my son Abram C. Martin seven hundred and fifty dollars in cash to make him equal with my other children, in cash that I have heretofore given them.

6th Item.

I give to my son Peter H. Martin, one hundred and fifty dollars in cash, to make him equal with my other children in cash, that I have heretofore given them.

(564)
7th Item.

My further will and desire is that the rest and remainder of my property, not otherwise bequeathed, of whatever character, whether lands, Negroes or other kind of property, money, notes or other effects shall go to and be equally divided between Sarah H. McGehee, William DeLoach, Polly Ann, Ogletree, Abram C. Martin, Peter McGehee, and the children of my deceased daughter Elizabeth S. Wellborn share and share alike, that is, the six children of my said daughter Elizabeth S. Wellborn, are to have one share of the same, and I further desire that the Negro girl now in the possession of my daughter Sarah H. McGehee, named Angelina and which I have heretofore loaned to my said daughter, be included in the bequest which I have made in this seventh Item of my will. My further will and desire is, that all the property which I have bequeathed in this my will to my daughters, Sarah H.
McGehee, Polly Ann Ogletree; and also what I have bequeathed to my Grand daughters the children of Elizabeth S. Wellborn, be held by them for their sole and separate use, free from the contrivals, debts and liabilities of any husband that any of them may now have or hereafter have, and my said daughters Sarah H. McGehee and Polly Ann Ogletree, and my said grand daughters the children of Elizabeth S. Wellborn are to enjoy said property for their sole and separate use as before stated during their natural lives, and after their death to go to and belong to their children, that is the ~~children~~ ^{descendants} of each of my said daughters, and each of my said Grand daughters.

are to have their mothers share after the death of, my said daughters and Grand daughters,

8th Item,

My further will and desire is that what property or money I have bequeathed to my son Abram D. Martin be held and controlled by my son William D. Martin in trust, and for the use and benefit of my son Abram C. Martin, and so to be held, controlled by my son William D., that the use and proceeds thereof, shall be applied for the benefit of Abram C., in such a manner as said Trustee shall deem most beneficial to the said Abram C., and in the event of, the death of, the said William D., before the death of my son Abram C., that then, the like trust shall devolve in the same manner, on my Son-in-Law James Ogletree, and in the event of, the death of, the said Ogletree before the death of, the said Abram C. then the like trust to devolve upon my son-in-law Thomas H. Ogletree and in the same manner as provided for the other Trustees.

Item 9th

My will and desire is that as a mark of my love and attachment to the Methodist Episcopal Church South, among whom, and by whom I believe I met with a change of heart some forty odd years ago, to said church I give and bequeath the sum of Three hundred dollars to be collected out of my effects by my son William D. Martin, and handed over by him to the Georgia Annual Conference, to be divided among the most needy superannuated preachers, widows and Orphans of superannuated preachers, but not to widows and Orphans of, the same family, if however there should be money enough in my house at the time of my death, this amount may be taken by my son William D. Martin and applied to the above purpose. And I hereby appoint my son William D. Martin my agent to carry into effect my object above named.

I. Marshall Martin do hereby declare the above writing to be my last Will and Testament, signed, sealed and published this twenty-eighth day of January, One thousand eight hundred and fifty two in presence of,

Marshall Martin

Georgia Whereas I Marshall Martin did Merriweather County, on the twenty sixth day of January eighteen hundred and fifty two, sign, seal and publish my last Will and Testament in the presence of W. S. Mimbish, James A. Russell, Obadiah Warner and Myron Ellis as witnesses thereto, and as I am desirous of altering a part of said Will I do therefore make and ordain this my Codicil to said Will.

First, I revoke and cancel the fifth Item in said will, in which Item I have given to my son Abram C. Martin, Seven hundred and fifty dollars in cash to make him equal with my elder children in cash which I have heretofore given them, and I hereby substitute the following in lieu and place of said fifth Item, I give to my son Abram C. Martin, Three hundred and thirty dollars in cash to make him equal with my elder children in cash which I have heretofore given them, Second, I hereby revoke and cancel the eighth Item in said will, Item I have given my son Peter M. Martin, Six hundred and fifty dollars in cash to make him equal with my elder children in Cash which I have heretofore given them, and I hereby substitute in lieu and place of said sixth Item the following. I give to my son Peter M. Martin Six hundred dollars in cash to make him equal with my elder children in cash which I have heretofore given them,

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal to this my Codicil to said Will, this 29th day of April 1852, in presence of Myron Ellis

Obadiah Warner
H. S. Minbush
James A. Russell.

Marshall Martin

Georgia, before me Davis C. Grasham Meriwether County, Ordinary in and for said County in vacation, personally came William D. Martin & Thomas S. Colquhoun and produced before me the said last Will and Testament and Codicil of Marshall Martin deceased, and the witnesses of said Will and Codicil to wit; Hezekiah S. Minbush, Obadiah Warner, and Myron Ellis, which witness being duly deponed and say, that they saw Marshall Martin the testator, sign, seal, declare and publish the instrument now presented as his last Will and Testament and Codicil, freely, voluntarily and of his own accord and without any compulsion or influence whatever, that at the time of the execution of said Will and Codicil, said testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory, that deponents signed said Will and Codicil as witnesses in the presence of the testator, and at his special instance and request in the presence of each other, of such marriage during the life of the said Abram C. and at the death of the said Abram C. and wife to have and hold the same for the use and benefit of said children discharged of this trust.

But should the said Abram C. die leaving a wife without children born to him in marriage then the said William D. shall hold the whole of said property for the use and benefit of my children and Grand Children, my Grand Children taking such portions thereof as their Ancestor if alive would take if said property were inherited directly from me, discharged of this trust.

For the better execution of this trust, the said William D. or any trustee who may succeed him shall have such compensation or commission as is given by law in such cases, and in case the said William D. should die or resign said trust I then appoint James P. Oglethorpe trustee of said property with like power and duties, as those conferred on the said William D., and in case the said James P. Oglethorpe should die or resign, such trust shall devolve on Thomas G. de Sehee with like powers and duties as above stated,

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal to this my bond and published in the presence of. This 11th day January 1853

Codicil

In addition to my will and codicils thereto heretofore made and executed by me, it is my will, and desire to dispose of the residue and remainder of my Estate of which I may be possessed at the time of my death; and which I have not heretofore specifically disposed of. my Will and desire is, that all the residue and remainder of my Estate of whatsoever kind and nature the same may be, of which I shall or may be possessed at the time of my death, not heretofore specifically devised, and bequeathed by my said Will and Codicil thereto, shall be equally divided between the several legatees, named therein, share, and share alike; While it is at the same time expressly my will and desire that the share thereof, to which my son Abram C. Martin shall or may be entitled to under this Codicil, as well as to what he may be entitled under my aforesaid Will and Codicil, shall be vested in the trustees therein specified, for the purposes therein specified; and in the manner therein specified; it being my will, and intention, that the several trustees, shall so manage, and control the said property, as well as the rents, issues, and profits thereof, as shall in their judgement, best promote the welfare and happiness of my said son Abram C. Martin, and to prevent any unnecessary waste, and expenditure thereof, and to effect this object, it is my intention, to clothe the said trustees with full and ample power, and discretion; feeling confident, that they will so exercise it as to accomplish the object which I have heretofore expressed.

March, Term 1856.

The last will and Codicil of Marshall Martin deceased late of said County having been proven in vacation, and no objections being urged, and nothing being made to admit said Will to record. It is therefore considered that said probate is sufficient and it is ordered that said will be recorded.
