

I, John D. Miller of said County and State being advanced in age, and suffering with cerebral infarction, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death and knowing that according to Nature my stay on earth is not long, I feel like I should make a disposition of that property and effects the Lord in His mercy has blessed me with. Therefore I do hereby make and constitute this my last-will and testament:-

1st I Will that my body shall be buried in as decent a manner as my Circumstances in life will admit of so that while my body shall be consigned to the mother earth, my soul shall return to God who gave it - in whom only I have hope of immortality beyond the grave.

2nd I wish my lawfull debts paid.
3rd I will that should my dear wife Jane Miller be the longest lived, all of my property shall remain together, and that she be supported out of the rents proceeds and profits of said property, by the executor that hereinafter named by me, as long as she lives.

4th I will that after death and burial, that the property or effects I may be possessed of shall be taken charge of by my beloved son John A. Miller and that he be the sole heir

For ever in full compliance having given the rest of my children to-wit- M. L. Miller Mary Sheffer and Ethel J. McLondon property at their majority or marriage sufficient to off-set their portion of what I now have do I hereby constitute my beloved son George A. Miller executor of this will and authorize him to act without giving bond for same and to carry out all the provisions therein contained In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and give my signature this the 25 day of Feb. 1897 Read and signed in presence of

W. B. Bush

Georgia D. Imperson comes before me to-wit-Charles C. B. from me to-wit- Dancer, guardian of said County whose names appear to be above and foregoing will and testament of James Miller deceased. This on oath says that said will was seen when said will was signed by said Miller and the same was read aloud to him that he declared same to be his last will and testament. I observed further says that his signature thereto is genuine and correct that after signing same he said testator that they E. B. Bush, O. B. Bush and C. E. Libut attested same as declared by him
