disposing memory, make this as a final disposition of my property with which I have been blessed, hereby revoking all others made by me.

First, I desire and direct my executor hereinafter appointed, to pay all my just debt after my death.

Item 2^d I direct that after my death that all my property be sold to the highest bidder, or if my heirs can agree and divide the estate among themselves satisfactory, they can do so without a sale, and after the payment of all indebtedness and expenses, the remainder to be equally divided, share and share alike, among all my lawful heirs

Item 3^d. I hereby constitute and appoint my son Thomas B. Newton, executor of this my last will and testament: This 1st day of December 1872. N. G. Newton

Georgia } Before me came, on the Milton County } 4th day of November 1873 at Chambers, for the purpose of proving the last will and testament of Nathan G Newton, the witnesses to said will, viz; J. G. Cantrell and Angeline McEliskey, and the will having been brought before me for probate, by the executor Thomas B Newton, who has filed a petition for probate of the same. They the said witnesses depose of the same, that they saw said Nathan sign and publish the same as his last will, on the day and year then stated, as executed by him, that they witnessed the same at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other; that the same were voluntarily executed by him, while he was of sound and disposing memory.
