I James Fleming, being in low state of health but of sound mind and memory do hereby constitute & make this my last will and testament as follows (viz) I give unto my beloved wife, Betta Fleming, all my property real and personal so long as she remains my widow or until my children become of age or marries off, and which either of the above named circumstances shall take place, I wish my wife Betta to distribute off to each of them as she may think proper of the stock, household and kitchen furniture &c. But should she marry while any of my children are minors, I will unto her only an equal share with each child of the stock, household and kitchen furniture. I will unto my three sons Perry, Lewis, Wiley & James Monroe Fleming all my lands wherever I now live in the above named county (i.e.) No 226 two hundred and twenty six & part of lot No 223 two hundred and twenty three & lot No 227 two hundred and twenty seven, all being in the seventh district of said Monroe County to be equally divided by lot to them each when become of age, reserving to my wife the house and plantation for her use and those of the children that may still remain with her. I will unto my three daughters Zella, Elizabeth and Sarah Fleming an equal share with my wife and sons in the following property (viz) No 334 three hundred and thirty four in the eighteenth district and third section and No 78 seven hundred and fifty in third district & fourth section both being in the gold region in the lotteries purchase drawn in my own proper name (or if any error in the above named gold lots as to acre or sections, such lots as shall be found drawn to my or proper name) with the following negroes, a sunbottle boy by the name of Frank, one woman by the name of Judy, two small girls Nancy and Mary Ann and one young woman, Melinda, the said negroes being property of my wife during her widowhood.
