

State of Georgia }
 Monroe County }

In the name of God. Amen

I Jeremiah Heade of the County and State aforesaid being of sound mind and memory, and knowing the uncertainty of life, do make, ordain and publish this as my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.
 First I resign my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the dust from whence it originated there to rest 'til the resurrection of the dead, with a hope of glorious immortality.

Item second, I desire and it is my will, that my body be buried in a decent manner at my death.

Item 3rd I desire and it is my will that all my just debts be paid out of such part of my estate as my Executors by the sale thereof may think can be spared with less inconvenience from the surviving family, such as the productions of my farm. If a sufficiency can be spared from my surviving heirs besides their support, such disposition of my estate as herein before expressed. I leave discretionary with my Executors as with him to be named.

Item 4th I next bequeath the whole of my remaining estate after the payment of my just debts, to my beloved wife Rebecca Heade during her life or widowhood subject to the exceptions and provisions hereinafter to be mentioned.

It. 5th It is my desire, and I will that all my children now born and unmarried and those hereafter to be born receive as liberal an education as the circumstances of the family and the financial condition of my estate will admit. It is also my desire and I will that the Education of the aforesaid children be as equally enjoyed as it possibly can be by my Executors to whom I leave the disposal of said children discretionary.

It. the 6th My daughter Susannah M. Rogers having received the sum of fifty dollars in various articles to her by me furnished, before the making of this will, I desire and it is my will that the aforesaid sum of fifty dollars be deducted from her the said Susannah M. distributive share at final distribution or settlement, and that whatever property, money or other articles, I or my executors may furnish her or any or all of my children, after they are of age or become of age be taken account of and deducted from their distributive share at final settlement or distribution.

It. 7th I desire, and it is my will that after the decease or marriage of my wife Rebecca Heade that the whole of my estate both real and personal then remaining shall be sold by my Executors to the highest bidder, and the proceeds thereof be divided equally among my children.

of the sale be equally divided amongst all my children then living or to their heirs - the heirs of my deceased children (if any) to receive the part to which such deceased heir or heirs would have been entitled, if he she or they had lived, the above seventh item to be subject however to the following exceptions. My son George W Headle having already received from me in property money and various articles, amounting to a sum nearly equal to his distributive share of my estate before the making of this will, I therefore desire and it is my will that the aforesaid George W Headle receive the sum of five dollars only after the death or marriage of my wife Rebecca Headle to be paid to him by my Executors at final settlement or distribution.

I further make, constitute and appoint Zachariah Houghley, Aaron Rogers and Rebecca Headle my Lawful Executors to execute this my last will and testament.

In Testimony whereof I have herewith set my hand and affixed my seal this the Eleventh day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty two
