I Byrd Swartz of the county of Morroe in the State of Georgia being in low health but of sound (and disposing (mind and memory do make (and ordain this my last will (and testament.

It is my will (and desire that all my property real and personal after the payment of my just debts should be kept together (and managed to the best advantage for the maintenance of my beloved wife (and children (and for bestowing on my children a proper education.
When my youngest child arrives at the age of twenty one years, then the (said property or what may remain thereof with the increase (and profits is to be divided among my wife (and children equally according to the statute of distribution now of force in this state.
In case however my beloved wife should marry again before the arrival of my youngest child at the age of twenty one years then it is my will that on her marrying,
