WOMAN'S WORLD

SOCIAL MEANDERINGS OF A HAPPY TOWN.

Clench, the photographer, with the two people of business and social work call and see it.

Mrs. Abby Armour, of Greensboro, has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. S. A. Tarnell, and other relatives here this week.

Misses Sudie and Martha Foster were called to Atlanta last Monday by the death of their aunt, Mrs. Martha Woodson.

Capt. Floyd Foster, of Eatonton, was in the city a short while last Monday on his way to Atlanta to attend the burial of his aunt Mrs. Martha Woodson.

Miss Amanda Perry, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. T. H. Burras of near Rutledge, returned to her home last Tuesday.

Mrs. J. E. Hecht and lovely children, of Monticello, spent some time in the city this week with her patrons, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ackerman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mines and little son, of Covington, came down Sunday, and spent the day in the city with old friends.

Miss Rosa Walker came over from Farmington Friday and attended memorial services here. She returned Sunday morning.

Miss Emily Hutcherson, Appalachee excellent teacher was in Madison Friday and attended memorial services here.

Mrs. George W. Spinks, of Greensboro, spent Sunday in Madison with her sisters the Misses Blair.

Mrs. W. A. Morris of Greensboro, was in the city last Sunday on a short visit to friends.

Madison how has what it has long needed, a good photographer. Patronize him so he can stay.

Miss Della Vanderford, of Crawfordville, spent a short while here this week with old friends. Miss Della's former friends were delighted to see her again, and to know that she is well pleased with her new home.

Miss Lavinia Michael, one of Jasper's most popular teachers, was one of Madison's guest on memorial day.

Misses Richie and Missie Walton spent last Saturday and Sunday, very pleasantly with relatives in Godfrey.

Mrs. Anna Banks Johnson, of Griffin, mother of Miss Elizabeth Johnson, one of the popular teachers of our public school, spent a short while in the city this week with her daughter. She is a most excellent lady.

Curiosity once killed a cat. But enough curiosity is a good thing. You require it to gain knowledge. Be curious enough to come in and see Clench and his new photograph studio. Every thing up-to-date. Come in!

Mrs. Lodie Cohen was called to Atlanta last Sunday to see her sister, whom we regret to learn is quite sick at a sanitarium in that city. Mrs. Cohen returned Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rufus Morgan of Buckhead, were in the city Sunday, and attended services at the Presbyterian church.

Judge and Mrs. T. B. Baldwin spent last Sunday in Jones county with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Lanier of Gainesville, are expected in the city this week. They will spend the summer with their children here and in Madison. — Walton News & Messenger.

Mr. and Mrs. Lars Wilkens, of Madison, announced the engagement of their daughter, Mrs. Annette Dugeborg Wofford, to Col. Frank Matthew Daret, of Virginia.

Mrs. Henderson, of Oxford, was in the city on a short visit this week.

Miss Nannie Porter has been spending a few days in the county with her mother and family. She left yesterday for Gainesville.

Mrs. Willoughby and Miss Hargreaves, of Oconee county, are visiting Mrs. Hester and family in this city.

Miss Wentzel, of Monticello, spent Sunday in the city, the guest of her friend, Miss Todd, at the Hotel Turrell.

Mrs. A. E. Perry and children are visiting relatives in Eatonton.

Mr. E. B. Fitzpatrick was down to Macon, yesterday, being summoned as a witness to attend the United States Court.

Mrs. R. S. Douglas is visiting in Atlanta.

Lee Trammell is selling Muslin for half price.

After a delightful visit to Augusta, Miss Martha Holland returned home Monday.

Miss Ray, of Augusta, will visit friends here the latter part of the week.

Miss Mattie Moore will spend Sunday with Miss Richardson, at Rutledge.

Miss Gussie Copeland, is now at the Central depot office, learning general routine office work. She is already a good telegrapher, and as soon as she acquires the run of the office, will be ready to accept any position in this line the road might offer her.

Millinery cheap at Lee Trammell's.

Miss Agnes Godfrey left Monday for Hepzibah, where she will visit friends.

Miss Sally Mustin has returned from a very pleasant visit to Mrs. Carr, of Augusta.

Miss Willie Hume of East-End and little daughter of Mr. E. L. Hume has been visiting Mrs. Prior of Athens, she returned home last Tuesday.

Miss Willis Mae Richardson of Mallory, attended Memorial services here Friday, returning to her home Saturday.

Miss Daisie Middlebrooks, an accomplished young lady of Farmington, is visiting her sister Mrs. W. E. Bugg.

Miss Bessie Walton entertained a few of her friends at cards last evening. Nice refreshments were served, consisting of whipped cream, strawberries and cake. Those present were Misses Annette Broughton, Calvin George and Bessie Walton; Messrs. Tom Holland, Bat Vason and Mr. Bergstrom, of Athens.

Dozier & Co. have closed out their lumber business here during the summer months and Mr. Olin Dozier has left this week for his old home in Athens. We are loath to lose Mr. Dozier as a citizen. He is an enterprising young man, and during his stay here has taken an active interest in the up-building and progress of Madison. He is a public-spirited citizen of which any community might be proud, and we sincerely trust his departure from Madison is only temporary.

The regular monthly meeting of the Home Mission Society will be held at the Methodist church next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is desired. Mrs. H. T. Shaw, Pres.

The annual Spring Flower Show given by the Ladies' Flower Club, will be held on Wednesday, May 8th, as yet place not selected, but probably at Post's store room, next to J. T. Greenham's. Cream and cake will be served.

Miss Maggie Broston, Brownwood's most excellent teacher, will give a delightful entertainment at the Brownwood school house to-morrow, Friday, night. It is given for the benefit of the Brownwood Library, and an admission of 10c will be charged. It will be a nice drive in the moonlight from Madison, and a good crowd from here should attend.

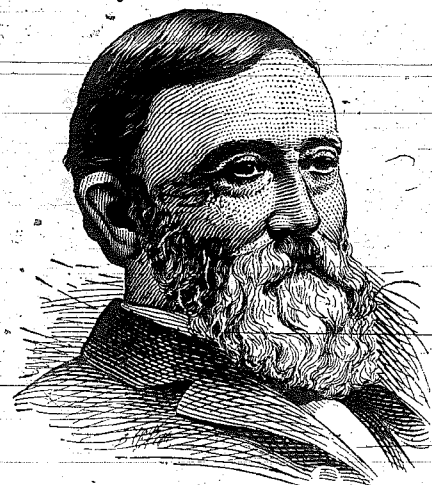

The rumors of many marriages are flying through the air. We can't depend much on rumors, but before the month of June goes out reality will tell.

Miss Calvin George entertained Misses Annette Broughton and Helen Donnan, Messrs. Tom Holland, M. F. Ramsey and Dr. J. J. Bethen at cards Tuesday evening. After the game delicious ice cream was served at Vason's.

It will interest a number of Madison friends to know that Miss Kate O'Connor, so pleasantly remembered as a visitor to Madison last summer, was married to Mr. Wm. McGuire, a prominent business man of Washington, Ga., in Brunswick, last week, and is now enjoying a wedding visit to New Orleans. She was a good, smart woman, and we but express a common wish for her happiest future.

DAN GROSVENOR SAYS:

"Peruna is an Excellent Spring Catarrh Remedy—I am as well as Ever."

HON. DAN A. GROSVENOR, OF THE FAMOUS OHIO FAMILY.

Hon. Dan A. Grosvenor, Deputy Auditor for the War Department, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., says:

"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from one bottle of Peruna. One week has brought wonderful changes and I am now as well as ever. Besides being one of the very best spring tonics it is an excellent catarrh remedy." Very respectfully,
Dan A. Grosvenor.

Hon. John Williams, County Commissioner of St. West Second street, Duluth,

A Freak of the Types.

By some witchery of the types two comical errors have crept in to the head life of the boys of '81. Each was different, and by looking at last week's paper and then at this, you'll see how it is. If you get puzzled by it, it is easy to find a practical solution by calling at the store and asking for bargains slippers and Oxford. There are no mistakes in the bargains offered.

Commodore Dexter is a good man anywhere you place him, but he shines resplendent when he is with the boys of '81. He makes an admirable officer on Memorial day—none better—and his recent act of placing tiny Confederate flags on the grave of every Confederate soldier in both the old and new cemeteries on that day was a beautiful sentiment and received many favorable comments from our citizens. Look live the Commodore.

Prof. J. L. Jones, of Columbia, S. C., has been spending part of this week with Col. and Mrs. J. C. Barton. Prof. Jones is one of the best educators in the Palmetto State. He is a cultured, charming, old-time Southern gentleman, and made an excellent impression upon our people during his short sojourn here. Mrs. Barton was one of his pupils when she was a girl, and his visit here was "a home between whom there has always been a strong friendly attachment."

Mrs. Atkinson, of Thibault, spent last Friday in the city with Mrs. L. M. Thompson.

We regret to know that Mr. Davis, the aged father of Mr. W. E. Davis, of the Hotel Turrell, is very low and the chances of his recovery are doubtful.

Miss, says the following in regard to Peruna: "I am a remedy for catarrh. I cheerfully recommend Peruna. I know what it is to suffer from that terrible disease and I feel that it is my duty to speak a good word for the tonic that brought me immediate relief. I have cured me of a bad case of catarrh and I know it will cure any other sufferer from that disease."

Miss Mattie L. Guild, President Illinois Young People's Christian Temperance Union, in a recent letter from Chicago, Ill., says:

"I doubt if Peruna has a rival in all the remedies recommended today for catarrh of the system. A remedy that will cure catarrh of the stomach will cure the same condition of the mucous membrane anywhere. I have found it the best remedy I have ever tried for catarrh, and believing it worthy my endorsement I gladly accord it."

Mrs. Elmer Fleming, orator of Reserve Council No. 168, Northwestern Legion of Honor, of Minneapolis, Minn., writes from 235 Polk street, N. E.:

"I have been troubled all my life with catarrh in my head. I took Peruna for about three months, and now I think I am permanently cured. I believe that for catarrh in all its forms Peruna is the medicine of the ages. It cures when all other remedies fail. I can heartily recommend Peruna as a catarrh remedy."

The spring is the time to treat catarrh. Cold, wet winter weather often retards a cure of catarrh. If a course of Peruna is taken during the early spring months the cure will be prompt and permanent. There can be no failures if Peruna is taken intelligently during the favorable weather of spring.

As a systemic catarrh remedy Peruna eradicates catarrh from the system wherever it may be located. It cures catarrh of the stomach or bowels with the same certainty as catarrh of the head.

For a free book containing valuable advice on the causes and treatment of catarrh, address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. Elmer Fleming, of Minneapolis, Minn.

Editor W. T. Bacon was called to Lexington last Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. L. H. Bacon who had died in that city the day before. Mrs. Bacon was a most excellent, and was a sister in law of Editor Bacon, to whom we extend sympathy.

M. C. Few & Co. are erecting a cold storage room in their ware house at the Central depot, where they will store their meat during the hot summer months.

The 20th Regiment, U. S. V., is now being mustered out at San Francisco. They will all be set free in a few days, and then our boys will come home as fast as steam can bring them.

Rev. W. D. Wishnau is having his home in this city made up attractive by a fresh coat of paint, and is also remodeling it to some extent.

The house of Mrs. Allie Atkinson on Washington street is being remodeled by adding several rooms to the rear of the building. It will present a very attractive appearance when completed.

The largest stock of Buggy Umbrellas, at Carbo's.

Mr. S. M. Waltham, of Watkinsville, was with his old friends here last Friday and Saturday.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys, and if they are weak, the blood is impure.

Kidney trouble causes quick or uneasy heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick, you must make the mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized.

It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits.

By all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle by mail.

Free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

Should Use Improved Methods.

Proper preparation and cultivation of soil are impossible with the antiquated tools used by our grandfathers.

Improved plows, rollers, harrows, planters, weeder and cultivators are absolute essentials of success in these days.

The man who persists in the use of old time tools and methods will soon be left behind in the race by his more progressive neighbor.

While he finds the old-fashioned tools unsuited for proper pulverizing of his soil, leaving many clods unbroken, or to be broken one at a time, his neighbor with improved implements plows the land to the necessary depth, and then crushes the clods on a strip 7 or 8 feet wide each strip across the field.

With the same implement that does the surface the weeds may be killed without allowing one to reach a height of six inches.

The old rule of 1 acre a day will not do for these progressive times. Ten times that much can be done by many toothed instruments made for the purpose.—State Agricultural Department.

Two million tons of sugar are annually imported for the sweet tooth of America.

Puerto Rico is a country of farms, 95 percent of them worked by their own owners.

Roots For Georgia Farmers.

We note some good suggestions in a late bulletin issued from the Experiment station Manhattan, Kansas.

The horse, over all crops will do well and thrive on good pasture in spring and summer alone. But if this grass be cut and cured into good hay and fed alone to the animals they will lose their appetites in a short time and become thinner and will cease to "look well."

Corned hay is dry, and the grass in a succulent feed. Beans dry: Grow some succulent feed for the winter.

After corn silage, we would suggest roots as perhaps the next best succulent feed for winter use. One of the best root feeds is the mangold wurtzel. Sugar beets have been grown successfully by only a few Georgia farmers, so far as we know. Mangals can be grown profitably in our climate, provided a good rich soil, with plenty of moisture, is selected. Prepare an acre of land as you would a garden, and dropping the seed as you plant garden beets, in rows 30 inches apart. Six pounds of seed are required for an acre. The long red mangold yields most, but it is not a good keeper. The golden mangel will keep until June. Cultivate as you do corn. Thin with a hoe so one plant every six inches in the row.

The mangals are good to aid in fattening your hog. Hacks your cows give rich milk, help the calves get through the winter and spring. Try an acre. Should be planted from the middle of March to the 10th of April, not later.—State Agricultural Department.

MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES.

Beautiful Sentiment of the Polished Orator—Pretty Exercises.

Memorial Day exercises, under the soft skies of a typical Dixie April day, and the balm of a sun warmed in sympathy to the sentiments of the occasion, was one of hallowed surroundings.

The program was charmingly planned, and under the enthusiastic guidance of Commodore Dexter was carried out to military precision.

The part taken by the children of the public school, under the skilful training of Supt. Ramey, was efficient, correct, and impressive.

Teachers, in songs and marches, and in the parade, was a most pleasing incident of the occasion, and so full of the martial spirit as to warm the blood of the old patriots of the decimated columns of the Sixties.

After the assembling of the large concourse in the Auditorium, the various grades of the school filed into the hall, under care of their respective teachers, to a pretty march executed by Miss Leeb, in splendid order.

Marchal of the Day Dexter announced the order of exercises, and after a song by the children, "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," the mortuary committee's report was read by Dr. T. J. Walker, in the absence of Col. F. C. Foster, who is chairman of that committee, and was detained in Augusta. Tributes were read to the memory of James E. Chiles, who had been active in the incorporation of the Veterans Association in 1885, and from which time he has been Secretary to the time of his death. A tribute on the death of Joseph K. Moore was read, and Dr. Walker paid tributes in a few words to the memory of James H. Murry and R. C. Tuel, who had died during the year.

The ceremonies were opened by Rev. M. E. Peabody in prayer.

Col. J. C. Ransom, words of touching pathos introduced Col. Julian Williamson, orator of the occasion. Col. Williamson's address was of rare beauty, ornate, a perfect rhythm of sweetly flowing sentiment in poetic bleeding, grouped in rare climax of fervid patriotism, touching the various points that gave glory to the cause, and that mantled its brave defenders in an imperishable lustre of heroism. There was all in the address to honor the dead, to inspire the generation of the living, and to implant in youthful minds a right impression of reverence, without studied heroics or political platitudes. It was a booming address, suited to the occasion, and that charmed every listener in its flash of rhetoric, and flight of eloquence.

The children then sang "Mary Forewarned, Forearmed."

The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate—fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that a simple malady might result seriously.

A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs.

No other remedy so thoroughly and effectually cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renovates the entire system.

It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.

Mr. E. M. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes: "I had a very bad case of skin trouble for five years. It would break out in blisters, and then the skin would crack and peel off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. I tried all the medicines I could get, but all the medicines failed me. I then tried S. S. S. and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Mrs. Henry Gieseler, of Cape May, N. J., writes: "I had a very bad case of skin trouble for five years. It would break out in blisters, and then the skin would crack and peel off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. I tried all the medicines I could get, but all the medicines failed me. I then tried S. S. S. and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. C., writes: "I had a very bad case of skin trouble for five years. It would break out in blisters, and then the skin would crack and peel off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. I tried all the medicines I could get, but all the medicines failed me. I then tried S. S. S. and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

land, my Maryland."

Commodore Dexter then formed the procession in order of march to the cemetery—Flag Boys, children of the school, Veterans, Ladies of Memorial Association, Citizens in order of age.

A pretty sentiment of the occasion was the marking of each soldier's grave in the Confederate plot, and scattered through both cemeteries, with miniature Confederate battle flags, presenting its claim to the favor of flowers.

Notwithstanding the scarcity of flowers, the school children had so generously supplied themselves with handsome bouquets that every grave was cared for. In all its features the observance was a perfect success.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid fever that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened—I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. F. George's Drug Store; very bottle guaranteed.

Pan-American Exposition.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 1st to November 1st, 1901. The Pan-American will be one of the greatest and most beautiful exhibitions the world has known. To enjoy its beauties will be worth many an effort.

The question of traveling to and from the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo is one to be carefully considered.

When you buy your ticket you will wish to feel satisfied that you have selected wisely. You will desire to travel comfortably, pleasantly, promptly and to secure the most of interest on your journey.

The matter of returning home, too, must be considered as after you have done this exposition, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and vicinity, you'll be tired and wish to go quickly and comfortably.

The Central of Georgia Railway by reason of its desirable connections both to and from the Exposition, and the fact that it offers a very reasonable rate for the round trip, is the most desirable route for the Pan-American journey from the Southeast.

Through direct connections are made through Atlanta, Athens, Augusta at all rail or through Savannah, then the pleasant and comfortable steamships of the Ocean Steamship Company to New York or Boston.

See any agent of the Central of Georgia Railway or on up to a postal, as probably we will have something in the way of special matter about the Exposition we can send you.

Mrs. Roberts, of near Greenville, is the guest of her daughters, Mrs. C. T. Williams.

Messrs. J. H. and J. N. Stanton and Miss Abigail Stanton went to Conyers Saturday to see Mrs. Rebecca Terrell, who is quite ill. Mrs. Terrell's many friends will be glad to know that there has been a change for the better in her condition.

Misses Mattie and Annie Ford celebrated their many friends. Friday evening. Games and conversation caused the time to glide swiftly by and at a late hour the crowd dispersed having spent an exceedingly pleasant evening.

A wedding that came as a great surprise and one in which there is unusual interest was that of Miss Maude Stanton to Mr. G. Herschel DeLapierre, of Houston, which took place Sunday afternoon, April 20th, while on a visit to her sister, Mrs. H. R. Niblack, of Jackson county. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Stanton, and is very popular, where ever known and has many friends who wish for her a wedded life of perfect happiness and contentment.

Mr. DeLapierre upped his success in winning a noble young woman.

The Pigeon Shoot at Monroe.

The Madison and Monroe Gun Clubs met in a match clay pigeon shoot on the latter's grounds. Thursday afternoon of last week, resulting in a victory for the Monroe boys by a score of 674 to 406 out of a total of a thousand shots on each side. There were ten gunners on each side, both sides shooting ten rounds, with ten shots each at a round. The highest score on the Monroe side was made by Messrs. E. C. Arnold and R. L. Nowell, who tied with 78. The highest score on the Madison side was made by Mr. G. A. Bearden with 64 and Mr. Homer Patrick with 53.

Those who shot on the Madison side were Messrs. Bearden, Patrick, Yason, Cowan, Almond, Baldwin, Frank and Chas. Carvin, Drs. W. L. and E. W. Belcher.

The Madison Club was seriously handicapped by reason of inexperience in shooting clay pigeons, by not having suitable guns and by the strange trap used.

However, our boys had a delightful trip and took in highest terms of their royal treatment at Monroe.

Almost a Serious Fire.

The ringing of the fire bell and the cries of fire Saturday night about nine o'clock brought out our citizens in great numbers to a fire that was consuming the roof of Mr. O. N. Dexter's kitchen. It looked at first as if the fire had grown too large and hot to be checked, and that the house would be burned. By the heroic efforts of the bucket brigade and the timely use of the chemical engine the fire was soon extinguished. The dwelling had a narrow escape.

Death of Fred Price.

Although his death was expected, the news Monday morning that Fred Price had died in the city hospital is a sad one. He was well known. The remains were interred at Farquington Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Price was one of the best known and most promising young men created in this section of Georgia. He was the only son of Hon. Weldon Price and Mrs. Caroline Price, and brother of Miss Caro Price.

He graduated from the University law school a few years ago, and has been practicing law at Waynesboro. He was a young man of splendid appearance and personality, and left an impressive wherever he was known. But the untimely hand of disease seized him several years ago, since which time he steadily declined in health until called upon to pay the last debt of nature.

Whoooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last winter, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their nupties and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops—Jesse, Freddy, Hal, Springfield, Ala. This Remedy is for sale by Hunter & Brooks, Madison, and R. R. Jones, Bowditch.

BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Was the Banquet Dinner at the Hotel Morgan.

The formal opening of Hotel Morgan was celebrated Friday evening last with one of the most brilliant affairs in the social history of the city. It was a banquet dinner tendered to the merchants and business men of the city.

Covers were laid for 100 guests, and promptly at 7:30 o'clock they began to arrive, and never was there a more representative gathering of our people or a more genial and social communion of citizens. The professional man, the merchant and the mechanic sat side by side and partook in good fellowship the elaborate spread prepared by the skilled and experienced hand of Manager Wolf, and drank to the abundant success of Hotel Morgan.

Promptly at eight o'clock the sweet strains of Card's Orchestra, from Atlanta, resounded throughout the halls and corridors of the big building in a few words Rev. W. S. McDuffy extended to every guest a cordial and gracious welcome to the festive board of Hotel Morgan with that degree of amenity that made the guests feel that they were all Madisonsians and in Madison.

The Congressional Primary.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Eighth Congressional District in Athens on April 26th rules and regulations were adopted governing a primary election to be held in every county of the district on June 26th for the nomination of a congressman.

The election is to be held under the rules and regulations governing the state primary, and result ascertained in the same manner.

A convention was called to meet in Athens on June 18th for the purpose of formally nominating the democratic candidate for congress, each county being entitled to twice as many votes in convention as it has representatives in the legislature.

To Daughters of Confederacy.

EDITOR MADISONIAN--As Confederate veterans we desire to express our appreciation of the laudable work Misses Emma High and Agnes Godfrey in organizing a Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy in Madison.

While it is true that Madison has been tardy in obtaining this organization, yet the old maxim is applicable--"better late than never." But the preliminary correspondence, which brought the proper blanks, preceded organization and for the subsequent steps that resulted in a complete establishment of the Chapter--which work had to be done by somebody Madison would still be in the vanguard in this matter. To these two patriotic and inspiring young ladies, are indebted for the Madison's "Daughters of the Confederacy," presided over so ideally by Mrs. A. S. W. From the hands of this noble lady will come the crosses to our Confederate veterans. It has been beautifully said that "amber sheds not so sweet perfume as the veriest trifles touched by the hands of these women."

Thanks then again to Misses High and Agnes Godfrey for their shining and to Mrs. Ware for accepting the presidency of the "Daughters of the Confederacy."

DEATH OF JAS. E. GRILES

It Occurred in this Place Thursday
Afternoon of Last Week.

The death of James E. Griles occurred at his mother's home in this city in the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day.

At 10 o'clock Saturday morning, a funeral service, conducted by Rev. T. J. Swanson, was held at the home, and at eleven another was held at the Baptist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. S. McCarty. The pall-bearers were P. G. Walker, J. T. Gresham, M. F. Atkinson, C. G. Brooks, Q. L. Wallford and H. W. Baldwin. A detachment of the Confederate veterans, led by Captains W. A. Wiley and C. W. Baldwin, escorted the hearse to the old cemetery where the casket, almost hidden by flowers and surmounted by battle-flags, was lowered into a soldier's grave—that "sweeter sod than fancy's feet have ever trod."

His health had been failing since last spring and, though his friends foresaw clearly his coming dissolution, he himself, naturally hopeful, believed for a long while that he would again be well. He would discuss the question, however, without trepidation and few have met death with a more unflinching trust.

He was born in 1842 in Abbeville District, South Carolina. Though he graduated at no college, his education, obtained in good schools, was highly respectable. By extensive reading and constant association with the best and the most intelligent of people, he was well informed in events of public importance and especially in the history of the Baptist church of which he was a most devoted member. He was converted in 1860 and in 1864 joined Enon church in Southwest Georgia, having been baptized by Rev. Dr. S. G. Hillyer. He ever held his religion above his church and his church above every other consideration. He amassed no earthly riches. He achieved no high degree of worldly glory. He was wise enough not to be ensnared by these false lights. With undimmed faith, he saw above and beyond them the True Light and, I doubt not, has now attained it in all its richness and glory.

He worthily filled many positions of usefulness and honor in his church. At the time of his death, he was one of its deacons, and had for several years been its efficient Sunday school superintendent. He was president for years of the Sunday School Convention of the Central Association. He was of late a traveling correspondent and solicitor of the Christian Index. In all this work he sought nothing but the glory of his Maker, looking for a city which hath foundations whose maker and builder is God. When in his teens he joined Co. B, Orr's Rifles, McGowan's Brigade and became a valiant Confederate soldier. At Second Manassas, he received a wound which made him lame, and from which he suffered at intervals during the remainder of his life. He was a modest illustration of this beautiful sentiment: "the scars on the front of a brave soldier are stars that direct others to the haven of honor and create in them a noble emulation."

When I looked into the coffin and saw the kindly face of my friend, fixed in its final pose, I turned away unutterably sad in the thought that I would, in this life, never again see or hear him. The total helplessness of the dead as we behold them for the last time, however kind we may have been to them, fills us with pity and unavailing regret that we have not been more sympathetic and kind—that the opportunity of yet being so is gone forever. And thus, although my friendship with him had been unbroken, I then felt as I thought of never, never seeing or hearing him again.

His venerable and consecrated mother who is only waiting to join him, his devoted brother abounding in the faith and his no less pious sisters, although bowing without a murmur to this sentence from the Supreme Judge, are greatly bereaved. Besides the consolation of their faith in a happy reunion in the Great Beyond, they have many friends who deeply feel their loss and extend them in these dark hours all possible sympathy.

H. W. BALDWIN.

The Confederate Veterans Association of Morgan County, being informed of the illness of Brother and Comrade George N. Dexter, J. B. Baldwin and W. B. Mallory were unanimously adopted to visit him.

Resolved by rising vote.

That this association do hereby extend to Brother and Comrade Geo. N. Dexter, T. B. Baldwin and W. B. Mallory, our profound sympathy and earnest prayers and best wishes for their speedy and complete recovery.

And That a copy of this resolution be furnished to Comrade Dexter, J. B. Baldwin and Mallory and their families.

Comrade Nathan Harper was elected to fill the vacancy in line of promotion in officers of the camp by the death of Comrade and Commander Chas. W. Baldwin.

Comrade Foster presented O. I. Patrick's application for membership to both camp and the Confederate Association, and on motion of Comrade Foster, Comrade Patrick was unanimously received and enrolled his name as a member and paid his dues.

All the members present paid their dues to the camp for 1900.

The mortuary committee through its chairman, comrade F. C. Foster made its report. In presenting the report Comrade Foster made a most thrilling and eloquent address, full of emotion and pathos, in which he exhorted all the members to remain faithful to the camp and association and be prompt in attendance in all the meetings and take active part in the same, at the conclusion of his address the report of the mortuary committee was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

On motion of Comrade S. W. Booth the mortuary committee consisting of Comrade Foster, Muslin and Patrick who have so long and faithfully performed the duties imposed upon them were again unanimously elected to same for the ensuing year.

Comrade S. W. Booth was elected marshal of the day, to serve in place of brother G. N. Dexter, sick and unable to be present. On motion of Comrade Booth the camp and association adjourned to meet at 2:30 p. m. and march in a body to the Auditorium to take part in the Memorial Day exercises and the services of the Ladies Memorial Association, all of which was done.

J. S. LEAK, First Vice Pres.
J. S. HODGE, Sec.

MADISON, GA., April 27th, 1903.
 The Confederate Veterans' Association met at the court house at 10:30 o'clock in regular meeting.

In the absence of President J. C. Richter, first vice-president J. S. Leak was called to the chair.

Secretary Wiley then spoke of his impaired eye sight, and suggested that a secretary be chosen, and put in nomination Comrade J. S. Hogue, who was elected.

The report of Mortuary Committee being in order, Comrade Mustin, of that committee, reported the absence of Comrade Foster, chairman of the committee, his official duties preventing his preparing tributes to our deceased comrades. On motion, it obtained that the Mortuary committee be granted indulgence until the occasion of the celebration of President Davis' birthday, June 30th, 1903.

On motion, and carried, Comrades H. C. Fears and L. T. Penick be added to Mortuary Committee. The Mortuary Committee now stands as follows: F. C. Foster, M. A. Mustin, E. L. Newton, J. W. Burney, J. S. Leak, H. C. Fears and L. T. Penick.

The only deaths that have been reported since our last annual meeting are T. J. Wakker, Wm. J. Smith, W. T. Ballard and R. W. Herod. It is earnestly requested that any relatives or acquaintances of any Veterans of Morgan county who have died since April 28th, 1902, will report same to secretary of the Association as early as practicable in order that tributes to their memory may be embraced in Mortuary report for June 30th.

On motion of Comrade G. N. Dexter, it was decided that the names of Observed in Madison With Oratory and Flowers.

Madison and Morgan county celebrated Memorial Day in a most becoming manner. The Auditorium was filled to overflowing, standing room being at a premium. The gallery seats were all taken, every seat on the lower floor was occupied and the aisles were filled with people during the exercises. It was, indeed, an eloquent tribute paid by our people to the sacred memories of a lost cause, and to the old veterans who wore the gray.

The exercises began at 2 o'clock. With martial tread a goodly number of old veterans marched into the Auditorium and accepted seats reserved for them. The children of the public school marched in with regularity, which bespoke thorough training, and occupied seats in the center of the hall.

With Miss Lester at the piano the exercises began by a stirring song from the school children. Rev. Quillian led in prayer. Col. J. H. Holland presided over the meeting in a most creditable and dignified manner. He was master of ceremonies, and performed his task with grace and ease.

Another song by the children, at the conclusion of which the mortuary report of the Veteran's Association of this county was read by Hon. F. C. Foster. This mortuary report was composed of the names of Capt. Chas. W. Baldwin, Rev. Jno. B. Chiles, and Mr. James W. Reese, three old veterans who had answered the final summons since last Memorial Day. The MARI-SONIAN will publish this report next week.

Prof. M. F. Ramsey introduced the orator of the day, Prof. Glenn Legwen, of Crawfordville, Ga., in a speech that was pronounced a gem by all who heard it, and was one of the special features of the occasion. The speaker paid a glowing tribute to the Confederate cause, to the soldiers who made that cause immortal, and his peroration was a masterpiece of eloquence and chaste diction. Prof. Ramsey was soundly applauded at intervals, and the orator of the day, Prof. Legwen, was greeted with an outburst of applause when he arose to speak. His effort was an admirable one. A born orator, he handled his subject that of the "Lost Cause," with consummate skill and eloquence. His speech was one of the best ever delivered in the Auditorium, and his flights of eloquence at times were sublime. The long and continued applause at the conclusion of the address, attested the great appreciation of the audience.

At the conclusion of Prof. Legwen's speech, Mrs. Mary C. Warren, president of the Morgan County Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy arose and in a most beautiful address presented crosses of honor to two old veterans, Rev. T. H. Burruss and Mr. C. L. Parrick.

Mr. S. W. Booth was marshal of the day, and performed his duties with much adroitness and skill.

After another song by the children of the Confederacy, the crowd marched to the Cemetery to deposit the graves in the following order:

Confederate Veterans, Daughters of Confederacy, Children of Confederacy, Children of Citizens.

To the Memory of Mrs. Chiles.

Mrs. Frances E. Chiles, though never holding an office in the Ladies Memorial Association, was ever deeply interested in the exercises annually held, commemorating the brave deeds of the men who defended so nobly the Confederate cause.

If pain and suffering for a cause increases loyalty and devotion for that cause, then indeed Mrs. Chiles' loyalty and devotion for the Lost Cause deep and abiding; for few indeed were called upon to suffer as poignantly in bereavements, losses, and hardships as she, even in those cruel years that tried men's souls.

The beautiful queen mother in a home of noted culture, refinement and piety. A home where was ever present the Highest Ideals of devotion to truth, unselfishness and love, and taught by the son of God. A home in which the servants were faithfully taught the sublime truths of Holy Writ, and where the master

CIRCULAR ORDERS }
No. 7 }

I. The time has again arrived when it is necessary to remind the Officers of Camps that the Per Capita for the year 1916 should be paid. The General Commanding earnestly urges that a prompt response be made this circular, so as to avoid congestion and save overwork to the headquarters force. Camps are urged to make immediate payment of dues. This course has been urged in the past, but scant attention has been paid to it. Much inconvenience will be avoided if this request is complied with. Under the Constitution, payment must be made before April 1st. (Sec. 3, Art. I, By-Law; Sec. 1, Art. X, of the Constitution: "A correct roll of active members in good standing in each Camp shall be forwarded annually, before the first day of April next preceding the General Annual Meeting, direct to General Headquarters, upon which certified roll will be based the Camp's Per Capita— which shall accompany it—and computed the Camp's representation at the annual annual and other meetings." "No Camp shall be permitted representation in any meeting of this Federation until said Camp shall have paid the annual Per Capita Tax due, and all other amounts due the Federation by said Camp.") The amount is Ten Cents for each member. The books of the Adjutant General are closed the week before the Reunion; and Camps which delay payment until the Reunion are not put on voting sheet.

NOTE THIS:

Camps will please remit by Post Office Money Order, as the loss by exchange upon checks and drafts is too great. If local check is sent, add twenty-five cents for exchange.

II. The Blank Roll or Roster required is enclosed herein, and when made out, must be forwarded with the amount of the Camp's Per Capita, direct to these Headquarters. The Constitution requires that the Command in the C. S. service shall appear on the Roster. Do not overlook this. Also please fill out and forward at once to these Headquarters the enclosed blank "List of Officers." This is necessary on account of the constant changes occurring by death, election and otherwise. This request is often overlooked; and names of officers on the books of this office have not been changed for years.

III. There has been great confusion in the past in the delivery of Delegates' Buttons, owing to the fact that Delegates could not locate the Division Adjutants General in the Reunion City. This has been a crying evil; and to remedy it, it has been decided to send the buttons direct to the Camps from these Headquarters. They will be supplied at cost to the Camps, but duplicates will not be issued if originals are lost. Camps should include in remittance Five Cents extra for each Delegate to which the Camp is entitled, that the buttons may go forward promptly. These buttons are supplied to Delegates only, none to Alternates, and they will not be sent to individuals, but in one lot to Officers of Camps only, that they may get admission to the space reserved for Delegates in the Convention Hall. Do not confuse the Delegates' Buttons with the Reunion Badges, which are also supplied from these Headquarters. A circular of the Reunion Badge will be sent at a later date.

OFFICE OF

Adjutant General and Chief of Staff

New Orleans, La., 31 May, 1916.

Adj. J. S. Leake,

Morgan County Camp #617 U.C.V.,

Madison, Ga.:

Dear Comrade,

I find on my desk on my return to the city, an envelope, with no letter, but list of officers and a list of names, and a remittance of Two 80/100 ($2.80) Dollars in payment of the dues of your Camp for 1916.

The list of names is of no value. The Constitution requires that the C.S.A. command of all members be on the Roster. I send a fresh Roster that you may do this.

With best wishes,

Hastily and sincerely,

I. With great pride and satisfaction the General Commanding announces that all the Camps of the Maryland Division have settled in full their dues to these Headquarters. Of all the Camps composing this Division, not one is in arrears. This can be said of no other Division in the Federation; and therefore most hearty congratulations are extended to Maryland, and her course most highly commended.

II. The annual dues are so insignificant (ten cents for each member) that many Camps overlook or neglect the payment. The Commanding General takes this occasion to urge all Major-Generals and their Adjutants-General to lend their aid in getting Camps to settle all arrearages, and to keep their dues paid, so that our grand Federation may do better work. He holds Maryland up for imitation, and trusts that the day is not far distant when the dues of every Camp will be paid in full.

HEADQUARTERS UNITED CONFEDERATE VETERANS, }
NEW ORLEANS, January 9, 1904: }

The General Commanding directs attention to the following letter from the Finance Committee, which is self-explanatory and exhaustive:

To all Commissioned Officers and Camps of the U. C. V., and Patriotic and Liberal Confederate Soldiers Everywhere:

Every Veteran who has stopped to think for a moment has realized that the expenses of the organization must be growing steadily, while the revenues in the very nature of the Association as steadily decrease as the years roll around. The increase is caused by the constantly growing amount of work, the accumulation of valuable documents alone entailing heavy additional labor and expense in their care. The only expense laid on the organization is the maintenance of the headquarters, which by association, law and propriety, are fixed at New Orleans; and headquarters must be maintained if the organization is to exist, and the vast amount of valuable authentic historical matter handed down to our children. These expenses may be summed up under the head of salaries for the various employees, office rent for the quarters occupied for the preservation of the records and transaction of business, for lights, for coal, for stationery, for printing, for postage and various other minor expenses impossible to enumerate. There are now over 1500 Camps, and each time orders, circulars or pamphlets are sent out it means from $20.00 to $75.00, and this occurs a number of times each year, often twice in one month. Then there is the work of preparing all this matter for the mails; and the answering and caring for letters and communications (sometimes over a hundred a day), looking after the business side of the Association, and hundreds of unavoidable incidental expenses that must be met. To provide for all these matters requires about $7,000.00 per annum. Less than half of this amount is raised from the per capita tax paid by the Camps, and the Finance Committee have found it absolutely necessary to devise some plan to make up this deficit.

After mature consideration, they, by unanimous vote, adopted the following schedule of annual assessments (or contributions, if you prefer):

Lieutenant Generals and Major Generals.	Each, $20 00
Brigadier Generals.	" 10 00
Colonels.	" 5 00
All others holding commissions.	" 2 50

Every member of the committee is an officer—three of them being Major Generals, three Brigadier Generals, and others holding other commissions—they cannot be accused of discrimination against any one. It is argued that these comrades hold the honors, and that they should willingly contribute to the support of the organization to the extent indicated by the resolution. Further, these honors are truly honors, the highest that can be conferred, and conferred on comrades as appreciative evidence of merit. Were these honors purchasable, the committee would have no need to ask for contributions, for there are dozens of men who would willingly pay enough annually to more than double the amount needed to meet all our expenses; but these commissions cannot be bought, hence the moderate sum asked of each one who wears the honors conferred by admiring comrades.

Of course, this demand does not do away with the former appeal made to Camps and Confederate Soldiers in all parts of the world who have been blessed by a kind Providence with ample means. Donations of any amount will be thankfully accepted.

The committee earnestly hope that the response to this appeal will be as generous, as prompt, and as cordial as was the response made by the officers when they were called on in January, 1903. Our Association must be preserved and kept in efficient working order, and on whom can the obligation more fittingly fall than on the officers of the Association? During the war the soldiers looked to the officers to supply their needs and to plan for their comfort and preservation, and the men in our ranks, our sons and daughters, are still looking to the officers to provide against all contingencies. The Finance Committee appeal to every officer to do his duty, and feel and believe that this appeal will not fall on deaf ears.

FRED. L. ROBERTSON, Secretary.

W. A. MONTGOMERY, Chairman.

The Commanding General feels that this appeal will not "fall on deaf ears," but that the officers will now, as on all former occasions during the time which tried men's souls, respond promptly, as they are requested to do.

Official:

By command of:

Wm. E. Mickle.

J. B. Gordon

Adjutant General and Chief of Staff.

General Commanding.

THE DUES FOR 1916 ARE NOW DUE.

NOTE.—This was the last communication ever sent forth from U. C. V. Headquarters by Gen. J. B. Gordon—an appeal to the officers not to let the Association be loved so well die from lack of financial support. Adjutant General.

General Order No. 1.

Under and by virtue of an order from General George P. Harrison, Commander-in-Chief of the U. C. V., I hereby assume command of the Georgia Division.

The Brigadier-Generals of this Division are hereby ordered to communicate at once with every Camp in their Brigade, with orders to the Camp Commanders to enroll the name of every veteran in the County in which their Camp is located, and forward to General William E. Mickle, at New Orleans, ten cents for each member for dues to the General Association. Also forward to Colonel Bridges Smith, at Macon, Georgia, five cents for each veteran as Division dues.

This enrollment is asked to be made for the purpose of obtaining the exact number of veterans in the State of Georgia, and for the purpose of carrying out the resolution adopted by the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Confederate Veterans at their conventions at Thomasville and Americus in 1916, to obtain an increase of the pensions to veterans of $15.00 per month, and that a copy of this list, with the Company, Regiment and Army in which service was rendered, and date of discharge, and how discharged, should be made and forwarded to Colonel Bridges Smith, Adjutant-General of the Georgia Division.

And it is also ordered that the names of all veterans that can be ascertained who will go to Washington to the June reunion, to be held on the 5th, 6th and 7th of said month, and to impress upon the veterans that they should go in uniform, if possible, but to go without it anyway. Those wishing uniforms can communicate with Colonel N. B. Forrest at Biloxi, Miss., who will give them the information as to how to obtain a uniform and the cost of the same.

Each Camp Commander is requested to have his County paper publish this order upon receiving the same, for the information of the public and the veterans.

CAPITAL TO HAIL 30,000 CONFEDERATES

First Southern Reunion to Be Held in Washington June 4 to Typify
Country with Single Aim

Heroic Gathering to Point Vital
Lesson of Preparedness to All the Young Men of To-day

By JOHN TEMPLE GRAVES.

During the week of June 4, 30,000 Confederate soldiers will march in triumph through the streets of Washington—from the Capitol to the White House!

And along the entire length of Pennsylvania avenue, it will be "The South in the saddle, and riding gloriously."

Fifty-six years ago this confident announcement would have created a national panic. To-day it is a welcome proclamation of patriotism and peace.

CONQUER HEARTS OF CAPITAL.

Camped at last in their country's capital and lighting their bivouac fires between the Washington Monument and the portico of the President's home, these battered and decrepit veterans of a lost cause—soldiers of Jackson and Johnson and Lee—will have conquered at last the hearts of Washington, and achieved in peace what they failed to accomplish at the point of their bayonets in war.

Never before have the Confederate Veterans held a reunion in their country's capital. They have met for twenty-seven years in every Southern city, holding their last reunion but one in Richmond—the capital of the old Confederacy—amid the glad hands and the reminiscent tears of that great old Virginia breed that made them welcome there.

They cross the Potomac in June for the first time—the twenty-seventh reunion of the Confederate Veterans and the twenty-second reunion of the Sons of Veterans—and come to hold their greatest and perhaps their last assembly in Washington, the capital of their country now and forever.

SWEPT WITH CHEERS.

The Grand Army of the Republic has held its reunion in Washington time after time. With flags flying and brass bands blaring and cannon booming they have swept the historic avenue with fervent and tender cheers.

But the "Tatterdemajons of Lee"—now good "American" citizens—who for years looked grumpy from the Virginia hills upon the stately dome of our House upon the Hill have never before linked these faded Stars and Bars in loving fellowship with the Star Spangled Banner in its official home.

What a glorious reunion it will be for these "old Confeds!" How rich in memory—how inspiring in suggestion. All the way that brings them to Washington will feed their souls with the fatness of martial recollections.

They will travel under or near to Marye Heights at Fredericksburg. They may recall on historic ground the fiery siege of Richmond, and catch the ghastly thunder of that tragic "crater" that blew men skyward at Petersburg.

MAY PASS BULL RUN.

They may pass Manassas and Bull Run and run near to tragic Appomattox. They may see the peaceful soil where once was fought the mighty "Battle of the Wilderness." They may see where Jeb Stuart, the South's brave cavalier of cavalry, fought at Culpeper and found his fatal bullet at Yellow Tavern.

They may see where fell Pelham, "the Great Cannonier." They may mark the spot where Stonewall Jackson "passed over the river" to rest under the shade of the trees.

They will almost be in touch with that crowning and fateful field of Gettysburg where Pickett wrote himself immortal in the world's most dauntless charge against the unbreakable ranks of Hancock on that wind-swept hill.

And as they pass softly beneath the slopes of Arlington, each old hero-worshipping hero of the dead Confederacy may murmur through his loyal tears:

For ah, if in song or speech,

In major or minor key;

I could to the end of ages reach,

I would whisper the name of Lee.

GOOD FOR CAPITAL.

It will be good for the nation's capital to have these old Confederate Veterans here. The 4th of June with them will make a nobler 4th of July for us all. The Confederate reunion at Washington cannot fail to carry a national significance. They could never come to a better place at a better time.

The sight of them—the sound of them—these old men with gray heads and broken bodies and brave hearts—and above all the love and honor, the respect and reverence shown them after fifty-two years of memory—will tell the republic some things that it needs at this time to remember.

It will tell to the young American manhood of this, crucial day, facing the perils of possible war, and to the pale faces of the pacifists blowing obstruction into the nation's honest effort to prepare.

First—That men who serve their own land according to their own convictions and have been willing to offer their fortunes and their lives upon the altar of a people's convictions, have never yet been forgotten and never will be forgotten by the people for whom they fought.

Second—That it is a great, brave race from which we Americans come—that we are the "sons of the sires"—that we are the spawn of heroes who knew how to fight and did fight as men have seldom fought before.

Third—That these are the men who faced at Gettysburg heroes of a similar strain even if from a different section, and over whose graves at that great battlefield, Abraham Lincoln spoke for the inspiration of all our history his immortal joint tribute to the "imperishable valor of American arms."

These men in their very presence will breathe from the battlefields of 1861-65 a message of duty and devotion to our country of to-day.

The city of Washington is our city, our country's capital. The North and the South and the East and the West are its owners and its lovers. It belongs to us all, born of our brain and our money and the genius of our institutions. It is the final capital of every citizen with a soul.

SOUTH WHOLLY LOYAL.

The South is a whole part of the great republic, through whose veins pulses now the red blood of loyalty unclouded with a single bitter memory.

This fourth of June should be made a national holiday. It carries the last great convincing scene in the mighty drama of a restored and forever "Indissoluble Union."

And men everywhere, North and South, should unite to make it. The spirit of William McKinley, whose generous soul declared at Macon that the time had come when the Union could well afford to care for the graves of the Confederate dead, and the spirit of L. Q. C. Lamar, of Mississippi, speaking in the Senate thirty years ago over Charles Sumner's bier, the matchless axiom "Let us know one another better, that we may love one another better," should unite all sections of the country to nationalize and to utilize this crowning spectacle of 1917 for a revival of national patriotism.

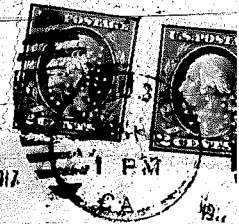

With hearts, with voices and with generous hands Americans should all do their part.

Heretofore the Southern cities that have entertained this vanishing host of Confederate soldiers have paid all the expenses of noble hospitality. Washington is a national rather than a Southern city. Its sectional generosity cannot be invoked.

And so without appeal other than the thrilling occasion and its meaning, to all true Americans, let the helping hand be volunteered to the Washington Committee to make complete and inspiring this last great scene in the drama of a reunited and invincible country.

April 4, 1917-

My dear Sir:-

General A. J. Twiggs, of this City, Commander, Eastern Brigade, Georgia Division, advises me he has written you concerning the forthcoming Reunion to be held at Washington, D. C., June 4th to 8th, and suggesting that your Camp travel via Augusta and proceed with him, as a special escort to Washington. Your Camp is in General Twiggs' Brigade, and I think it would be a splendid compliment to him to escort him to the Reunion as strong numerically as possible.

An enclosing copy of a letter I have written to some of the railroad agents in this territory which gives complete details of the arrangements that have been completed for the "Eastern Brigade Special".

We sincerely trust that you will accept General Twiggs invitation and decide as quickly as possible, so that all details can be completed. While the train will start from Augusta, No doubt special coaches or sleeping cars can be arranged to run through from your City to Washington if the size of the party warrants.

Enclosed herewith, is a list of hotels and boarding places at Washington for your information. As a very large attendance is expected at the Washington Reunion, would respectfully suggest that you engage such accommodations as may be desired at earliest moment. Will be very glad indeed to assist in securing accommodations for you, if we can be of service in that direction.

Enclosed, please find stamped envelope. May I ask that you favor me with your opinion of the arrangements which have been made and let me have the benefit of any suggestions you may have in mind. Also would appreciate advice as to the probable attendance from your Camp and if we may count on you for your support of the proposition outlined.

Any further details desired will be cheerfully furnished.

Faithfully yours,

District Passenger Agent.

April 4, 1917-

My dear Sir:-

I have pleasure in advising that Augusta Camp No. 435 United Confederate Veterans has selected the Southern Railway as Official Route to 27th Annual Reunion to be held at Washington D. C., June 4th to 8th, 1917 inclusive.

The Daughters of the Confederacy, Sons of Veterans and their families and friends will accompany them. It is planned also to take a band or a drum corps and all indications point to a large crowd with everything possible being arranged to make the trip a huge success.

A Special Train of standard sleeping cars, tourist sleeping cars and through electric lighted coach with a dining car to serve all meals, will be operated leaving Augusta 2:15 PM, Monday, June 4th, arriving Washington 8:00 AM, Tuesday, June 5th. You will note this train will receive direct connection from train arriving from your station.

This will be the Official Train of General A. J. Twiggs, Commander, Eastern Brigade, Georgia Division and will be used by General Twiggs, his Staff, Maids of Honor, Sponsors as well as U.D.C., band and others.

General Twiggs has written a letter to all Camp Commanders in his Brigade, urging them as far as possible to come by way of Augusta and accompany him on this trip, all to constitute a personal escort to their Commander to Washington.

Your City is in General Twiggs Brigade and we earnestly hope that you will be able to contribute a number of passengers to the success of this train.

The interest in the Reunion this year is greater perhaps than in many years, and there will no doubt be a tremendous outpouring of Veterans and their friends.

Tickets will be sold June 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, with final limit June 21, which can, however, be extended at Washington to July 5th, by deposit by original purchasers not later than 21st, with Special Agent, Terminal Station, Washington, and payment of fee of 50¢, made at time of deposit. If you have not been supplied with rate from your City, I will be glad to furnish same.

The fare from Augusta to Washington and return account this occasion, is $12.35. The lower berth rate Augusta to Washington in the standard sleeper is $3.50 and the upper berth $2.80. The lower berth in tourist sleeper is $1.75, and the upper $1.40. There is very little difference in the standard and tourist cars except the upholstering of the seats etc. Two people may occupy one berth if desired. The coaches on this train will be of steel with high back seats.

I hope to have the pleasure of seeing you about any movement which may take place from your City, but in event this should prove impracticable, will personally look after, at Augusta, any business with which you may favor us.

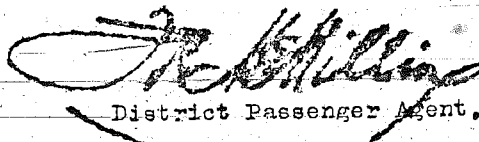

Would it be asking too much of you to advise me on enclosed postal card, amount of business which will likely move from your station and whether or not it will be mostly individual or a U.C.V. Camp?

Of course, for the accommodation of those who do not desire to leave on June 4th, or care to use special train, we have the "Augusta Special" a solid through train daily, with coaches, sleeping cars and dining car service, leaving here 1:15 PM, daily, arriving Washington 7:00 AM, and will be very glad to arrange accommodations on that train for anyone desiring.

Southern Railway will have on hand at Washington a large corps of trained men to look after our patrons and a representative will accompany train etc.

With very many thanks for your consideration in this matter, I am,

Faithfully yours,

District Passenger Agent.
