Last Will and Testament of David M. Dickson, Sr., State of Georgia; I D. M. Dickson Sen of the State and Morgan County, County aforesaid being weak in body but of sound and disposing mind and memory and anxious to arrange my worldly affairs while I have strength so to do, do make and publish this my last will and Testament, hereby expressly revoking and annulling all others by me heretofore made.

And first I direct that my body be buried in a Christian like manner and suitable to my circumstances while in life.

Second, I desire all my just debts paid with as little delay as possible by my Executor hereinafter named.

Third, I devise and bequeath to my son D. M. Dickson, Jr. (100) One hundred acres of land more or less, in Morgan County, Georgia, being the place on which I now live, together with all the stock, mules, horses of every kind and their increase, all my farming utensils, wagons, team, household and kitchen furniture, in other every kind and their increase, all my farming utensils, wagons, team, household and kitchen furniture, in other words all of my personal property of every kind, including notes, accounts or choses in action I may be possessed of at my death.

Fourth, The property devised and bequeathed to my son D. M. Dickson, Jr. in the third item of this will is subject to and charged with the following conditions, to wit: That from the rents and issues of said real estate my said son shall maintain and support his mother (my wife) Adaline Dickson, and his brother (my son) William H. Dickson in a manner suitable to their circumstances in life, so long as she said Adaline Dickson, and he, said Wm. H. Dickson shall either or both live, and upon the death of both said Adaline & Wm. H., then my said son D. M. Dickson, Jr. shall be liable for, and pay into my estate the sum of (700⁰⁰) Seven hundred Dollars, and upon payment of said sum, the property devised to him in said third item of this will shall be complete & perfect.

Fifth, Of the said sum of (700⁰⁰) Seven hundred Dollars to be paid by my said son D. M. Dickson, Jr. I devise
