Alvin A. Boyd's Will

State of Georgia Muscogee County

I, A. A. Boyd of said State and County, being now of disposing and of sound mind and memory, and knowing the uncertainty of life, deem it right and proper, both as respects my family and myself, that I should make a disposition of the property with which a kind Providence has blessed me, I do therefore make this my last will and testament, and my worldly estate, I dispose of as follows

First I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid by my Executors hereinafter named and appointed

Second I desire and request my said Executors to continue my present Mercantile business in the City of Columbus, so long as they in their best judgment may think proper, and whenever the same shall be terminated and wound up, whatever there may be of available assets in the hands of my Executors, including the Corpus, proceeds and profits of said business, I desire that my said Executors shall invest for the use and benefit of my children in such other property as they may think will best subserve their interest, and give and advance to each and all of my said children an amount adequate for their proper maintenance, education and support, according to their circumstances in life

Third As my said children grow up and become competent and qualified to attend to and manage business, I desire my said Executors to advance to them out of my estate, such sums as may be necessary for such purpose provided, such sum shall not exceed the distributive share of any one child. This matter however, I entrust mainly to the wise and prudent discretion of my Executors, desiring them in all things pertaining to the trust imposed, to subserve what may seem to be the best interest of the parties concerned

Fourth As I have heretofore conveyed to my wife a certain House and Lot in the town of Sweet Water in the State of Tennessee, and also Two Hundred and Twenty Two and a half (222 1/2) acres of land, situated on Sink Hole Creek, in the County of Monroe and State of Tennessee, and have also given her a beneficial interest in a Life Policy of Insurance which to me, in addition thereto I give and bequeath to her the sum of One Hundred dollars, in Cash

Fifth When the entire purchase money for certain property bought of Thomas G. Boyd and wife and others shall be paid, I desire my Executors to have said property conveyed to my said wife, for and during ^{the term of} her natural life, and at her death to go to my children, and should it be desired, to furnish the house so conveyed in such manner, and according to my estate as they may see fit

Sixth I hereby constitute and appoint my Nephew Joseph L. Boyd and my friend Wm. H. Braum as Executors of this my last will and testament, and it is my desire that they qualify and act as such without giving bond or incurring any personal liability whatever.
