J. M. Brooks

Ordinary.

Mrs Clementina Brooks' Will.

Georgia Muscogee County.

I, Clementina Brooks of the County of Muscogee and State of Georgia being in feeble health, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, ordain, publish, and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking all other Wills made by me.

Item First: It is my will and desire that my dear husband shall retain during his natural life all my real Estate and household & Kitchen Furniture, and at his death the same to be divided between my children - share and share alike.

Item 2nd - The money I have on hand and in Bank I request my Executor to pay out after my death in defraying my funeral expenses and Doctors Bills.

I hereby nominate and appoint my son Dr. F. L. Brooks to be Executor of this my last Will and testament, and it is my will and I so direct that he be not required to give Bond and security or make any inventory or appraisement of the Estate or to make any returns thereof, and I desire my Executor to manage the Building and Loan Association Stock which I now possess and in his judgment may seem best for the Estate.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the sixteenth day of June 1881.

Clementina Brooks

Signed, sealed, Published and declared by the therein named Clementina Brooks as her last Will and testament, on the day and year the same bears date, and we have hereto at her request signed our names to said paper and subscribed our names as witnesses in her presence and all in the presence of each other this the 16th day of June A.D. 1881.

Before me Francis M. Brooks, Ordinary in and for said County personally came J. Farmer who upon being duly sworn, deposed and said that she saw Clementina Brooks then in life sign seal, publish and declare the within instrument of writing to be her last will and testament on the day and year the same bears date. That at the special instance and request of the said Testatrix she affixed her name thereto as a subscribing witness in the presence of said testatrix and of each other. Deponent further says that she likewise saw T. J. Garner and J. A. Braannon sign the said will as subscribing witnesses at the request of the said testatrix and in her presence and all in the presence of each other. Deponent further says that at the time of publishing & declaring said will, said testatrix was of sound and disposing mind and memory and so far as witness knows or believes she did it freely & voluntarily and without any undue influence or compulsion.
