The foregoing writing found in Common form, and admitted to record as the Last Will of Bernard Dolan dec'd,

John Banks' Will.

Being now of sound mind and memory and knowing the uncertainty of life & certainty of death, Do therefore make this to be my last Will and Testament viz:

I give bequeath and dispose to my son John Troup the plantation and negroes and every thing else pertaining thereto, now in his possession called the Paddy Carr place in Russell Ala.

I give bequeath and dispose to my several children the items charged against them on my book of accounts.

I give bequeath and dispose to my wife Sarah all the balance of my property both real and personal.

I make constitute and appoint my wife Sarah Executrix of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Will, made by me,

Witness my hand and seal this the 12 June 1852
