

James H. Bogman's Will from tax collector
Muscookee County, Georgia Wills, Book C, 1875-1897.
www.georgiapioneers.com

said will, said testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory, and so far as witness knows or believes he did it freely and voluntarily, and without any undue influence or compulsion.

Sworn to & Subscribed before me

this 5th day of August 1881

F. W. Brooks Ordinary

J. C. Rudy

Georgia Muscookee County

I John H. Brittain do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last will and testament of the therein named James H. Bogman so far as I know or believe, and that I will faithfully execute the same, in accordance with the laws of Georgia. So help me God

Sworn to & Subscribed before me

this 5th day of September 1881

F. W. Brooks Ordinary

John H. Brittain

Muscookee Court of Ordinary

September Term 1881

The foregoing instrument of writing probated in Common form upon the affidavit of John C. Rudy one of the subscribing witnesses, and ordered to be admitted to record as the last will and testament of James H. Bogman, deceased.

F. W. Brooks Ordinary

Joseph Denson's Will

State of Georgia
Muscookee County

In the name of God, Amen!

I, Joseph Denson being of sound mind, and disposing memory, desire while I am in health, and can calmly consider as to the disposition of my worldly Estate; to so dispose thereof, as shall vest in my daughter, Mary, wife of James Boy Slade full title and possession of any and every kind of property of which I may die possessed, whether it be lands, or household furniture, or notes and accounts (having already provided for my Son William to a larger extent than I find myself now able to bequeath my daughter Mary), save and except that I herein and hereby relinquish all claim I have on my Son William for monies advanced him at divers times, all else I desire my Daughter Mary to be possessed of.

For the purpose of carrying this will into effect I appoint my trusted Son in Law James Boy Slade my Executor without requiring him to give Bond and Security. Witness my hand and seal this 1st day of July 1878.

Joseph Denson

121

Joseph Densons Will Continued.

Muscogee County, Georgia Wills, Book C, 1875-1891
www.georgiapioneers.com
The foregoing Will was signed in my presence, the Testator signed the Will in our presence, and declared and published the same as his last will and testament, and we the undersigned, and at his request in his presence, and in the presence of each other, attest the same, and subscribe our names at Columbus Muscogee County Georgia this 1st day of July 1878

J. Wise
Geo. W. Ticknor
Geo. W. Dillingham

Filed in Office this October 3^d 1881

F. M. Brooks

Ordinary.

State of Georgia
Muscogee County }

Before me Francis M. Brooks, Ordinary in and for said County personally came Geo. W. Dillingham who upon being duly sworn, deposes and saith that he saw Joseph Denson then in life, sign, seal, publish and declare the within instrument of writing to be his last will and testament on the day and year the same bears date. That at the special instance and request of the said Testator, he affixed his name thereto as a subscribing witness in the presence of said Testator, and of each other. Deponent further says that he likewise saw J. Wise and Geo. W. Ticknor sign the said Will as subscribing witnesses at the request of the said testator, and in his presence, and all in the presence of each other. Deponent further says that at the time of publishing and declaring said will, said testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory and so far as witness knows or believes he did it freely and voluntarily, and without any undue influence or compulsion.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 3^d day of October 1881.

F. M. Brooks

Ordinary

Geo. W. Dillingham

Georgia Muscogee County.

I, James B. Slade do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last will and testament of the herein named Joseph Denson, so far as I know or believe, and that I will faithfully execute the same in accordance with the laws of Georgia. So help me God.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 3^d day of October 1881

F. M. Brooks

Ordinary

J. B. Slade

Joseph Denson's Will continued.

Muscogee County, Georgia Wills, Book C, 1875-1891

www.georgiapioneers.com

Muscogee Court of Ordinary
October Term 1881.

The foregoing instrument of writing probated in common form upon the affidavit of Geo. W. Dillingham, one of the subscribing witnesses, and ordered to be admitted to record as the last will and testament of Joseph Denson Deceased.

J. M. Brooks

Ordinary.

William D. Lynch's Will

State of Georgia } In the name of God Amen.

Muscogee County } I William D. Lynch of said County and State being of sound and disposing mind and memory but being advanced in years and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, feel that it is due my family to make a disposition of the property which a kind Providence has blessed me with, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking and annulling all other wills by me heretofore made.

Item 1st It is my will and desire that I be buried in a decent and christian like manner, suitable to my condition & circumstances. my soul I trust shall return to God who gave it, as I hope for eternal salvation through the merits and atonement of the Blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, whose Religion I profess.

Item 2^d It is my desire and I so direct that all my just debts be paid, as soon after my death as practicable, if the same can be done without being detrimental or injurious to the interest of my Estate.

Item 3^d I give bequeath and devise to my Grand Son Zepin Lynch one Feather bed and furniture attached to the same to be selected by his Grand mother if alive at the time of my death, if not to make the selection himself.

Item 4th I give, bequeath, and devise, to my beloved wife Frances D. Lynch, the place where I now reside, containing 20 1/2 acres more or less, together with all the appurtenances thereto belonging, together with all the personal property which may be on said place at the time of my death, and now consisting of Hogs, cattle, one mule named Crockett, one Horse named Jack, Buggy and harness, Wagon, Yoke, Oxen &c. And also all the Household and Kitchen furniture, (except the Bed and furniture heretofore bequeathed to my Grand Son) that may be on said premises at the time of my death, as well