Personally appeared in open Court, James Franklin and Lambert Hopkins both after being duly sworn depose and say that they saw James Franklin sign seal and deliver the within and publish the same to be his last will and testament, and that he done the same voluntarily and without apparent force of any persons watching, and that they depose and signed the same as witnesses, and that they saw Charles Conway do so likewise.

In the Name of God, Amen

I David Harris being weak & being but of a sound mind and disposing memory, and chiding to reservation the sanity of all men and of myself in particular, & wishing before my departing to dispose of my worldly estate, I do make this my last will & testament, and dispose of my affairs in the following manner.

I give my soul to the being from whom it has received its existence & as to my body I request that when in a peaceful state, it may be decently buried.
I demand I desire that my debts be paid by my Executors so soon as can be conveniently done.

Third, I give & bequeath to my beloved wife Hannah an equal share of my estate, with my children, which she is at liberty to dispose of as she pleases, if she
