Newton County } Know all men before whom these presents may come that I William Nolen of this State and country being of sound disposing mind and memory, though quite feeble in body and knowing that we all are appointed to die, do make declare and ordain, in the presence of these witness, this to be my last Will and Testament in the words following, to wit 1st I give to my Wife Mary Nolen so long as she may live the following, the whole tract of land where I now reside adjoining Mrs. Mc Ward on the South Ethan Nease with a T. Keith and Yellow river on the N.E. and S. also the following slaves, Ben and Aaron my, Tom Little Henry Dogtongue and George Dogtongue - Hannah and Linda women and their wives also my said Wife Mary Nolen to select herself or through a friend as much of the household & kitchen furniture plantation tools carriages of every description, stored of every kind provisions of every description and money to pay the first years expenses out of what I may leave at the time of my death.

2nd It is my will and desire that my son James Nolen shall superintend his Mother's affairs so long as they both may live he being allowed a fair & equitable compensation for his services out of the crop that may be made on the place.

3rd It is my Will that the balance of my slaves seventeen in number and all the balance of my marketable property if any and a crop of cotton if unsold be sold on a credit of twelve months and after paying all my just debts and the item in the first clause of this my Will the residue to be divided in the following manner to wit to be equally divided in to four shares 1st to my oldest son James Nolen one share to my third son Captain Nolen one share to my son James Nolen in trust for my eldest daughter Mary Weaver and to her heirs long and to come she to have the use of the same so long as she may live, and dies and to provide James Nolen in trust for the use of my youngest daughter Sarah Chambers, and to her will leave and to let her have the use of the same in sum as she may like one share provided nevertheless that such of the same as is left over which the above be intended for the benefit shall and to make or cause it to make is just and true when all valuation set they may have claims upon me either as a gift or loan, at the time of her death, and claims in the event of my executors within twelve months after my death and the same to receive a part of this sum, and in case either shall neglect or refuse to make such return the same shall have no claim to the part intended to be left.

4th It is my will test my two daughters Mary Mease and Sarah Chambers shall enjoy the uses of bequeathing and purchasing negroes at the sole and common use either should purchase more than would make an equal share in the same to whom it is given in trust may cause the same to be sold or to make an equitable division.

5th I do give and bequeath in the sum of £100 to my second son Charles Nolen money given him all to be expended for him however to be purchased in the State of Georgia.

6th It is my will that all the property of every kind that I shall leave by the use of my wife Anna Nolen that may remain at her death be divided with the increase be sold, and the proceeds thereof be equally divided in to five equal shares as follows one share to James Nolen my first son & his heirs the share to my third son Steven Nolen and his heirs one share to Anna Nolen in trust for my dead daughter Mary Mease and her heirs from and to be given on share to James Nolen in trust for my youngest daughter Sarah Chambers and to her heirs from and to be given also one share to Steven Nolen's fourth son Augustus Nolen one share.

I further name and direct Anna Nolen to be my sole and lawful executor to carry in to effect this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all others in confirmation of the same I have caused my name to be written and have made my mark in presence of these witnesses
