Georgia } Before me the Ordinary in and for the Paulding County } County aforesaid in person came Bogeman Adair Exor of James S. Adair who was Guardian of the minor heirs of James Shelton deceased who being duly sworn deposed and said that the papers wherein said Guardian kept his account of the amounts paid out were lost or destroyed during the war but that to the best of his knowledge and belief the foregoing return is just and true He further said that he received no other kind of money as such Guardian for said wards but Treasury Notes of the Confederate States of America and that the same currency issued in five per cent Certificates of the Confederate States except the amount set forth in his return the same occurring and payment and deposit not knowing of any other money he could make of said currency

We further States that he believes that W S Adair James Ego of James S Adair deceased acted bona fide and in good faith believing that it was the last intent of Adam to and subscribed
